ing able to select religious topics, outline and compose a speech from this topic and deliver it with good enunciation, pronunciation and expression; being able to properly appreciate and sing the gospel hymns of the church with correct value to time, tone and expression.

Those taking part in the program are Mary Ann Elliott, who was given a perfect score in the Junior Memory Work Tournament for those of the Junior Ages 9 through 12 years; Mary Berryman, who was successful in the Sword Drill for those of Intermediate ages 13 through 16 years; Francis Chesson, who was voted to represent the two associations in the State Better Speakers Contest at Ridgecrest during the State Training Union Assembly June 20-26. Members of the sextette, Charlotte Bunch, Beverly Moore, Ruth Goodwin, Dorothy Lee Chestnutt, Josephine Mills, Nelle Perry, whose two numbers in the Hymn Festival were given the highest rating of any participants, will sing these two numbers during the program. Members of mixed ages from the training union will fill the choir and will render the offertory number. Wallace Goodwin, Jr., will read the scripture lesson. The demonstration of the Junior Memory Work Drill will be conducted by Miss Mildred Munden, the Junior Leader; the Intermediate Sword Drill will be conducted by Mrs. John Senterfit, Jr., the Intermediate Leader; the Better Speaking Project will be presented by Mr. J. L. Chestnutt, the associate director.

This program will demonstrate in an interesting and informative manner the value and benefits from the various projects sponsored in the training program and what they can mean to the individual, the training union and the church. Every church member is urged to attend and the public is cordially invited.

Directors Of Rotary
Name New Officers

Edenton Rotary Club's newly elected directors at last week's meeting announced the re-election of R. N. Hines as secretary and the election of J. L. Chestnutt as sergeant-at-arms. The terms of office will begin at the first meeting in July when the new officers take over the new Rotary year.

During the meeting, C. W. Overman, the incoming president, was elected as delegate to the Rotary International Convention at Atlantic City as well as delegate to the District Convention in Elizabeth City. Dr. W. I. Hart was elected as alternate to the Rotary International Convention.

Parents Threatened For Children Out Of School

W. J. Taylor, school attendance officer has had to threaten four parents during April in order to get compliance with compulsory school attendance laws. Results, according to Mr. Taylor, were favorable in three instances, while the fourth seems to be rather indifferent.

Three letters were written to parents about irregular attendance of their children and two follow-up trips were made.

Man Floats On Air

Recently a local man who has suffered for years with tired aching, burning feet used PED-EX, and stated that, by simply massaging his feet with PED-EX every time he bathed, he now feels as though he floats on air.

He states, "You couldn't buy this jar of PED-EX for a million if I couldn't get another."

PED-EX is a formula of essential oils designed for foot sufferers. So don't be without it! Get PED-EX. Sold by all drug stores here in Chowan County in professional size only.
