

Demonstration Club At Center Hill Meets

Various Projects Dis- cussed and Committee Appointed

The Home Demonstration Club of Center Hill met Thursday afternoon, December 5th at 3 o'clock with Mrs. J. T. Jordan.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. T. White. "Silent Night" was sung and the club collect was repeated. Mrs. White read part of the second chapter of Luke.

Mrs. E. L. Belch gave a reading "Christianity in Christ". "What Christmas and Christianity Mean to Me" was read by Mrs. R. N. Smithson, Mrs. E. P. Jones, Mrs. J. N. Boyce and Mrs. J. T. Jordan.

A poem "Peace at Christmas" was read by Mrs. W. C. Francis.

The secretary called the roll, dues were collected, minutes read and approved.

The club was invited to meet with Mrs. J. A. Wiggins for the January meeting and a dinner is planned for the members and husbands.

Various community projects were discussed and a committee appointed to work out plans.

During the social period Mrs. R. M. Smithson led a very interesting quiz program and Christmas gifts were exchanged.

The hostess served a very delicious salad, saltines, cake and coffee.

METHODIST SERVICES

Preaching services will be held in the Methodist Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, when the pastor, the Rev. H. F. Surratt, will preach on the subject "Christmas and Christ". At the close of the service there will be a reception of a Christmas class of new members. Church School will be held at 9:45 o'clock Sunday morning and the Youth Fellowship meeting at 6:30 P. M.

Hey!
FINISH THE JOB!

You can't talk on a telephone that's not connected. And the sad fact is that, while telephone instruments are becoming more plentiful they are not the whole answer to our problem. Lack of cable and central office equipment prevents our completing the installation. So, we ask your continued patience until we can come back and finish the job.
