

Miss Ina D. Meekins Weds Burwell Evans

Father of Bride Officiates in Center Hill Church

The wedding of Miss Ina Dale Meekins, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Ray Meekins, to Burwell Atkinson Evans of Atlanta, Ga., took place with stately ceremony on Saturday, September 6, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the Center Hill Methodist Church.

The church was decorated with a background of greens. Tall vases of gladioli, asters and dahlias interlaced with fern were flanked by candelabra within the altar and repeated on either side of the altar rail. The bridal arch was intertwined with fronds of ivy and rose above a kneeling bench of white satin.

A piano program of nuptial music was presented preceding the ceremony by Miss Marietta Hooper. Traditional wedding marches by Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used and DeBusussy's "Claire de Lune" was played during the marriage vows.

J. Allen Osborne sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" during the musical program.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, S. Warren Meekins, wore a wedding gown of white satin bodice and full peplum with deep net yoke finished with bertha of lace. The long sleeves were tapered to point over the hands. The full net skirt was worn over a crinoline and ended in a full train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion fell from a coronet of finely pleated maline embroidered in crystal medallions. The bride's only jewel was a pair of rhinestone earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid and ribbon with lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

Miss Lois Meekins was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of aqua taffeta with basque bodice and full skirt of moussoline de saie. The off-shoulder effect was created by moussoline bertha. She carried a nosegay bouquet of assorted asters and gladioli and a matching hair bandeau.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Malcolm Bobbitt, wore a gown of yellow organdie made with a heart shaped neckline, short puffed sleeves, basque bodice and a bouffant skirt. She carried a nosegay bouquet of lavender asters and matching bandeau.

Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Jean Osborne and Miss Janice Meekins. They wore matching taffeta gowns of aqua and rose and carried contrasting nosegays.

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Mary Little Meekins, dressed in white satin and net. Bridesmaids also wore bandeaus of asters in their hair.

Flower girl, little Miss Gloria Ann Osborne, was costumed as a miniature bride.

R. Graham Evans was his brother's best man. Ushers were David Meekins, Malcolm Bobbitt, Philip Meekins, Robert L. Wilson and Melvin Meekins.

Officiating at the ceremony was the father of the bride, the Rev. Earl Ray Meekins.

The bride's mother wore a dress of rose beige crepe with dark brown accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Mistress of ceremonies was portrayed by Mrs. Inez Meekins.

The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Clayton Middleton, wore a two-piece dress of aqua crepe with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride. Guests were received at the door by Mrs. Rufus Smithson, who announced them to the mother of the bride, the father of the bridegroom, W. G. Evans, the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. Clayton Middleton, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Lois Meekins, sister of the bride.

Gifts were on display and punch and cake, nuts and mints were served. After the three-tier wedding cake had been cut by the newlyweds, good-byes were expressed at the door by Mrs. Emmett Jones.

For traveling the bride wore a cinnamon brown two-piece crepe suit with dark brown accessories. She wore the orchid from her Bible.

The couple will attend Louisburg College after a Southern wedding trip.

A CORRECTION

In the story last week about Chowan Superior Court it was stated that one divorce was granted by Judge R. Hunt Parker. It was stated that a divorce was granted Forrest H. Potts, colored, from Druzella B. Potts. This was a white couple and not colored as stated, the error occurring in securing information from Clerk of Court E. W. Spires at the close of court when he was head and heels in work. The Herald regrets the error and gladly makes the correction.

NEEDED: SIX HANDS Every good housewife has been faced with trying to do six things at once—and has found it impossible. We have been faced with the same situation in telephone service. Often, it seems, everyone in town wants to make a call at the same time. Naturally, we can't serve everyone at once. As it is, we're handling a record amount of both local and long distance telephone traffic with limited equipment. We hope to get new supplies to expand our facilities soon. Until then, please understand that you wait only when all our equipment is busy.

Attention FARMERS!

Your attention is called to the Membership Drive now being conducted by the Chowan County Farm Bureau in an effort to secure the county's quota of 617 members. With so many problems confronting the farmer today, every family in Chowan County should be represented in the organization with the paramount purpose of helping the farmers of the State. Individually, our farmers have very little influence in pressing the needs and rights of farmers, but by uniting with the Farm Bureau, strength and prestige is accomplished through which the voice of the farmer can claim attention of the powers that be.

Farmers need an organization which is ever on the alert for the welfare of agriculture, and for the benefit of the county as a whole, it is hoped that not only the quota will be realized, but that every family in Chowan County will have at least one member included in this year's membership.
