

Hazel Shaw Bride Of Logan R. Elliott

Ceremony Performed at Red Springs Sunday, September 7

In a simple but impressive double ring ceremony held in the Rex Presbyterian Church at Red Springs, Sunday afternoon, September 7, at 5 o'clock, Miss Hazel Pocahontas Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Shaw, of Rex, became the bride of Logan Rawlinson Elliott, son of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Elliott of Edenton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Murphy Smith of Faison, pastor of the Faison Presbyterian Church, and a cousin of the bride.

A green and white bridal theme was carried out in the church decorations. Pines and ivy formed a background against which were placed seven branched candelabra holding lighted tapers. Floor baskets filled with white gladioli, asters and fern completed the setting. The family pews were marked with white tulle bows.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. D. S. Currie of Parkton, pianist, and Mrs. M. F. Townsend of Lumberton, soloist. Mrs. Currie played "Claire de Lune," "Child's Prayer" and Bach's "Andante." During the ceremony "Venetian Love Song" was softly played on the piano. Mrs. Townsend sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "Because."

Miss Ann Shaw of Rex was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant. Her street-length dress was a Toni creation of pink crepe made with short flared peplum and with it she wore black accessories and carried a nosegay of pastel baby asters tied with pastel ribbons.

Serving as ushers were Duncan Shaw, brother of the bride, and Frank Elliott of Edenton, uncle of the bridegroom. William O. Elliott of Edenton was his son's best man.

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride wore a dress of moon blue crepe fashioned with a draped skirt. Her off-the-face hat was of black, as were her other accessories. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses, showered with tuberose. She wore a gold necklace, now owned by her paternal aunt, but originally belonging to her paternal great grandmother, the late Mrs. Mary Graham McNair Bethune, who wore it as a young girl. The bride also wore a beautiful diamond dinner ring, gift of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress with navy and white accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of amber crepe with brown accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

The grandmothers of the bridal couple, Mrs. J. J. Beard of Rex, and Mrs. E. T. Rawlinson of Edenton, wore black crepe dresses with shoulder corsages of white baby asters.

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a buffet supper for the out-of-town guests. Others attending from Edenton were Miss Zene Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elliott, Richard Elliott, aunts and uncles of the bridegroom, Miss Ruth Ray Elliott, Richard Elliott, cousins of the bridegroom, all of Edenton; Mr. and Mrs. Furman Bestal of Greensboro.

Mrs. Elliott was graduated from Flora MacDonald College in Red Springs in 1946, and for the past year has been employed in Edenton as assistant county agent for Chowan and Perquimans counties.

Mr. Elliott is an Army veteran and is employed in Greenville, where the couple will make their home.

The parents of the bride entertained informally at the home after the wedding rehearsal Saturday night. The guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. John J. Beard received in the living room.
