

Lieut. Myrtle Lane Weds Capt. Mathews

Miss Myrtle Winslow Lane of Tyner and Fort Bragg, first lieutenant Army Nurses Corps, and Captain Edwin John Mathews of Fort Dix, N. J., were united in marriage in an impressive candlelight ceremony in Main Post Chapel, at Fort Bragg, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums against a background of palms and ferns and four seven-branched candelabra bearing white tapers formed a pretty setting for the wedding scene. Completing the decorations, the altar rail was entwined with trailing ivy.

Captain J. B. Marler, assistant post chaplain of Fort Bragg, performed the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the speaking of vows, a program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Edna Williams, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Henry E. Lane of Tyner. She wore a white satin wedding gown trimmed with seed pearls featuring sweetheart neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt extended into a circular train. Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion was draped from a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations showered with pale pink sweetheart roses. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Thomas T. Purvis of Savannah, Ga.

Frances Smithson of Tyner, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Bridesmaids were Lieut. Veneta Shore of Fort Bragg and Miss Mary Crawford of Fayetteville.

The bridegroom was attended by Major William Griffith of Fort Dix, and the ushers were Lieut. R. E. Fishburn and Captain William Huffstetler of Fort Bragg.

Mrs. Henry E. Lane, mother of the bride, wore sheer black trimmed with sequins and a shoulder corsage of pink roses and carnations.

Following the ceremony, Hospital No. 1 Nurses Home was the scene of a reception for the bridal party and wedding guests.

Later in the evening, Captain and Mrs. Mathews left by motor for California, from whence Captain Mathews will sail in January for Korea. For traveling the bride was attired in a green gabardine suit with brown accessories and a corsage from her wedding bouquet. She wore a white gold bracelet set with emeralds, a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride, a popular member of the Nurses Corps, graduated from Jefferson Medical College Hospital, Philadelphia, and did post graduate work at William and Mary College, Richmond, Va. Before joining the ANC, she was employed in the Cumberland County Health Department.

Captain Mathews is the son of Heber Ratcliffe Mathews of Springfield, Mass., and the late Mrs. Lynda Carolyn Mathews. Previously connected with Replacement Training Center, Fort Bragg, he has been stationed at Fort Dix.

Among those attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Lane, parents of the bride, Mrs. Rufus Smithson, Rufus Smithson, Jr., Frances Smithson and Mrs. E. B. White of Tyner.

PONTIAC

A fine car made finer

Always good - always a great value

Pontiac's first rule of manufacturing is that every Pontiac car must be a good car. It must be soundly designed and quality built to serve long and dependably.

But it must also represent an outstanding value. The price must always be reasonable for so fine a car.

The Pontiac organization strives constantly for improvement in both these directions—to achieve even finer quality and even greater value. More and more owners are finding out what this means in terms of a better car and a sounder investment. As a result, Pontiac's reputation is the greatest in history—and is growing every day.

Better make your own next car a Pontiac—the car that is always good—and always an outstanding value!

DUE TO OUR UNFILLED ORDERS ON HAND, you may experience some delay in getting a new Pontiac. Place your order now to avoid further delay. In the meantime, let us keep your present car operating at top efficiency.
