

Mr. and Mrs. McCullers Hosts To Former Band Members At Reunion

With Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McCullers as hosts, in the neighborhood of 75 people were on hand Friday night to attend the annual reunion of the Edenton band which Mr. McCullers once directed and won fame throughout this State and in Virginia. The affair was held at the armory, where a weiner roast was the highlight and very much enjoyed by all who attended.

After all had been filled, John A. Holmes paid glowing tribute to both Mr. and Mrs. McCullers for their splendid work among the youth of Edenton, and in token of love and esteem, presented the Kinston couple a silver gift, a present from the boys and girls who think so much of them.

After the party at the armory the group adjourned to the band room, where about 30 former members of the band, known as "The Pride of Edenton," picked up instruments and, led by Mr. McCullers, played several numbers which compared favorably with the sort of music Edentonians heard them play several years ago.

HAIRDRESSERS MEET

A meeting of the Albemarle Hairdressers Association was held Wednesday of last week at Manteo, which was a very delightful affair, according to Mrs. Anne S. Jenkins of Edenton, who is president of the organization. The principal business transacted was a thorough discussion of matters to be presented at the State Hairdressers Association convention which will be held in Asheville on September 26, and which will be attended by Mrs. Jenkins.

The Manteo meeting was well attended by hairdressers from this section of the state. The next meeting will be held in Hertford in September.
