THIS WEEK'S BIBLE THOUGHT

HATE INJURES THE HATER, TOO: Hatred stirreth up strifes; but love covereth all sins.-Prov. 10:12.

Again We Observe Poppy Day

Once again Poppy Day approaches and will be observed in Edenton next Saturday, May 28. Nearly four years now have passed since the last shots were fired in World War II and more than 30 years since World War I reached its victorious conclusion. The world has moved on to face new difficulties and new dangers. Minds are busy with today's problems and tomorrow's uncertain-

Yet, the dead of those two wars must not be forgotten. Their memory should be kept bright all through the years by the little red poppy of remembrance which Americans wear on Poppy Day each year as a personal token of tribute to those who gave their lives for America. Wearing their flower recalls their spirit and gives new inspiration for service to the country they served so heroically.

And in hospital wards are men and women who are suffering because they defended America, comrades of those who died. The poppy is for them, too. They make the flowers of crepe paper in replica of the wild poppies that bloomed on the battle fields and battle graves in France and Flanders. For them the poppies mean interesting occupation and the encouraging experience of earning money again. Making poppies is a step in their rehabilitation.

The poppies are for children, also-for the children of the dead and disabled. Contributions for the flowers help bring to them the things they need for a happy, healthful childhood and a fair start in life.

These facts about the poppy need to be told again as 1949's Poppy Day draws near-told so everyone will understand and will welcome the opportunity to wear a poppy which the members of the Auxiliary of Ed Bond Post will bring to them. Let's us all buy and proudly wear a poppy next Saturday.

Lest We Forget

While we have little trouble to remember our heroes on Poppy Day, there is another occasion when we are too apt to forget our dead heroes. In mind at the moment are reburial rites held for veterans who lost their lives overseas. It is rather noticeable that at all of these rites very few have turned out for the service.

Another Chowan County hero, Ed Habit, Jr., will be reburied Sunday afternoon, and while his surviving comrades will pay fitting tribute, many others, aside from relatives, should pay tribute by attending the final rites in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

Clarence Speight is one who is called upon to handle a lot of jobs for various organizations to which he belongs, one of which is chairman of the Edenton Band's Transportation Committee. It was Clarence's job to arrange Proposed Hunting Laws Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. transportation for the band's trip to Raleigh last week to participate in the Shriner's parade. Much to his surprise, the job proved to be much easier and more pleasant than he anticipated for, he says, not a single person turned him down when asked to drive or loan a car. So, to say the least, it's one job in which he realized a great deal of delight and pleasure—which cannot be said about all of the jobs he, as well as a lot of us, are asked to do from time to time.

I almost forgot to give credit where credit is due, for with so many other things to occupy my mind lately, I've about forgotten all about fishing and playing an occasional game of golf. Anyway, the other day Bonner the Wildlife Commission for the 1949 Small said he caught a catfish weighing 10 pounds while he was fishing for bream. He had the proof, too, for he went to the trouble to drive to The Herald office to show the fish. Of course, Cal Kramer will figure it's a frameup between Bonner and I. However, it's not a lot of bull-but a lot of cat.

Well, the boys are back from the Red Men and Shriner conventions, held last week, and I've heard some of the jokes told at both conventions. The country now has a good cigar-but'it costs more than five cents, and I've about come to the conclusion that what this country now needs badly is some new jokes.

Oscar Creech, who is president of the John A. Holmes Bible Class of the Methodist Church, asked me how to get every member of the class present next Sunday morning in order to have a picture taken of the class. "Well," I said, "about the best way I know is to have something to eat." Oscar wanted to know what would be best to draw 'em out, and for such an early hour, I'd suggest country ham and eggs. Better eat your breakfast, though, next Sunday morning, members.

Now since West Gale Street has been marked off for parking only on the south side, Hec Lupton parks his car in his yard, especially around noon each Thursday. The Rotarians use almost the whole side of the street when attending their weekly meetings, and since Hec was recently elected president of the Lions Club, he don't want to get mixed up with that gang of Rotarians.

We've often heard the word "Chowan" pronounced as though the "Cho" part sounds like "Show." Folks out Oklahoma way must have heard the name incorrectly pronounced, for the other day I received a letter from Duncan, Okla., addressed "The Schowan Herald." Well. they no doubt spelled it the way they heard it pronounced. So another thing we need, especially here in Chowan, is to have someone teach visitors how to pronounce "Chowan."

It might be to one's advantage to have clothes which some friends do not like. For instance, the other day, a fellow was all diked out in a new suit, and asked one of his friends, "How do you like my new suit?" The friend said, "To be frank about it, I don't like it at all." The diked-out guy didn't seem to mind, for promptly he replied, "Well, I'm glad you don't, for now I'll not be bothered with you asking to borrow it some time when you want to put on the dog."
