W. N. (Bill) Cox, Norfolk Sports Writer Main Speaker

Edenton's Varsity Club is readying plans for a gala sports banquet which will be held in the armory on Monday night, May 15, with athletes from Edenton High School, as well as dignitaries from the sports world attending as special guests.

The banquet is being staged by the Varsity Club to honor the boys and girls who participated in athletics at Edenton High School during the 1949-1950 school year, and to help stimu-late interest in athletics of all the youngsters in the town and county.

Already, two All-Americans, Wake Forest's Charlie Teague and State's Dick Dickey, have accepted an invitation to attend the banquet and efforts are underway to get Carolina's fabulous Charlie "Choo-Choo" Justice to attend. It is the club's desire to have an All-American in each of the three major school sports to attend the affair which, if present plans materialize, will the the biggest sports ban-quet ever staged in the Albemarle.
