

About 900 Attend FHA Rally Held In Edenton Saturday

Kitty Campen Winner In Election For State Reporter

One of the largest rallies ever to be staged in Edenton took place Saturday in the High School auditorium when the Future Homemakers of America of District 1 gathered for a day of fun and entertainment. Approximately 900 persons from 18 eastern counties attended the affair. Hostesses were the Edenton chapter, assisted by the Chowan and Perquimans chapters, with Kathryn Woodard of Scotland Neck High School, FHA Parliamentarian, presiding.

The opening ceremony was led by Kathryn Woodard, vice-president; Betty Castelo of the Winterville chapter and Kitty Campen, of the Edenton chapter. Devotion was given by the Elizabeth City Chapter and John A. Holmes, Superintendent, extended the greeting. Following recognition of guests, Miss Miriam Scott of Edenton, District Advisor, gave some beneficial suggestions on FHA Week.

The guest speaker for the occasion was North Carolina's First Lady of Colonial History, Dr. Inglis Fletcher, who was introduced by Kitty Campen. Dr. Fletcher held her audience spellbound as she went in the Elizabethan background of North Carolina, stating that the year 1585 was considered the height of the golden age. She pointed out that although Sir Walter Raleigh got all the credit for the landing of the first colony in America, it was actually Sir Richard Grenville who brought over the first expedition. "After Grenville returned to England for more men of the soil," said Mrs. Fletcher, "Governor Ralph Lane was not the man for the Colony and a great deal of discontentment existed." Grenville was by far a greater man," she added. She told of the Colony's struggle for existence during their one year stay in America.

Ann Byrd of Windsor, sang "My Hero" after which Kathryn Woodard gave an interesting report of her "Michigan Roundup." Following announcements by Glen Twiddy, the group went to the Edenton armory where a delicious barbecue dinner was served by the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary, with Mrs. Paul Holloman and Mrs. D. M. Reeves in charge.

One of the highlights of the morning session was the campaign speeches by the various chapters seeking their favorite for State Reporter. Kitty Campen was elected, with Anne Timberlake of Woodland as first alternate and Hazel Paul, second alternate. Kitty, who will attend the National FHA Convention in Chicago, had as her campaign speaker her sister, Allison Campen, who appeared on the stage with a bow-tie midnight cat that kept insisting that his alley friends be called in for the fun.

Another feature which drew considerable applause during the afternoon session was a talent show, "The Olde South," with Sylvia Vaughan as narrator and the following chapters participating: Chocowinity, Aulander, Colerain, South Edgecombe, Tarboro, Weldon, Murfreesboro, Williamson, Woodland-Olney, Central, Winterville, Pantego, Robersonville, and Edenton. These youngsters provided good entertainment of tap dancing, singing piano solos, skits and minuet. Donald Brant of Winterville was especially good in his pantamine of Al Jolson singing "Mammy," and Shirley Keeter of Edenton, who did a tap dance specialty with Margery Thigpen at the piano.

The Dixie Land Jazz Band of Edenton provided music for the occasion and for Betsy Duncan in a superb baton twirling act.

Chowan County Fair Begins Next Week

Of interest also to visitors will be a wildlife exhibit which will include a bear, deer, rabbits, coon, squirrel, wild ducks, Canadian geese, quail, pheasants and doves. This exhibit will be sponsored by the Chowan Wildlife Club and personnel of the North Carolina Resources Commission of the First District.
In connection with the fair a feed bag dress revue will be held on the armory stage Thursday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The contest is sponsored by the Chowan Farmers Exchange and a great deal of interest has been aroused among both children and adult groups.

On Friday night Chowan Tribe of Red Men are scheduled to "burn" a paleface. The Red Men have about completed arrangements for the feature, and all members of the tribe are urged to be on hand to take part.

Town Starts Project For Paving Streets

J. George were spokesmen for the group and pointed out that due to the necessity for considerable work or replacement of seating facilities at Hicks Field, a plan for proper utilization of the area presents one of the community's most pressing needs.
The Varsity Club, said the spokesmen, saw little reason for spending money needlessly on repairing present facilities, and in view of present conditions, the recreational area should be planned for joint year-round use by the school and community, and that a cooperative plan should be developed for the most effective use of the area.

It is the purpose of the Varsity Club to secure some person who is expertly trained in laying out playgrounds and recreational centers and provide a master plan to govern all future construction on the site, and also provide parking facilities.
Town Councilmen were impressed with the idea and authorized the club to contact a planning expert in order to ascertain the cost in providing a master plan for Hicks Field. This will be done immediately, according to members of the club making up the delegation.

A committee composed of Chief of Police George I. Dail, W. J. Yates and Graham Byrum submitted two propositions in order to alleviate the traffic problem on East King Street, one of which called for widening King Street six feet. The Councilmen adopted the other proposition which will prohibit parking on the south side of the street from Broad to Oak Street. A 50-foot unloading zone will be provided on the North side of the street running east from Broad street. Fifteen feet will be allowed in front of the hotel for guests to load and unload and three spaces will be allowed for doctors. In this proposition the town lot next to the police station will be turned into a free parking lot.

Kermit Layton appeared at the meeting in behalf of the Junior Chamber of Commerce erecting street markers in Edenton. Mr. Layton stated that about 75 of these markers were planned, which will be paid for by the Jaycees. They were granted permission to erect the markers, with the aid of the Street Department.

Mrs. J. L. Weller Will Conduct Art School

sponsored by the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs. In this particular school Mrs. Weller studied period arrangements.

Several magazines have published articles written by Mrs. Weller. She is also the author of three books, "What Every Garden Club Member Should Know," "Xmas Facts and Fancies," and "What Foliage Means to a Flower Arrangement." She is kept busy teaching the thirty-six Garden Clubs of Norfolk and vicinity, as well as engagements out of the city and state. She also teaches private classes in floral art.

Those who wish to make flower arrangements are requested to bring their own flowers, containers, flower holders, and scissors.

Mrs. Weller is a sister of Mrs. J. A. Powell of Edenton.

Woman's Club Plans For Coming Activities

Boyce and various committees were assigned work for the big party.
Mrs. Ruth Vail Porter also called attention to the art exhibit in the Iredell House on November 9 and 10. Prizes will be awarded for primary, elementary, junior and senior high school exhibits.
