

Poultry Chain Again For 4-H Members

Sponsored By Berkley Feed Company For Second Year

Chowan County 4-H Club members are again fortunate in having a 4-H poultry chain. This particular project is sponsored by the Berkley Feed Company of Norfolk, Va., and is the sixth year of such a project in Chowan County, the second year that the project has been sponsored by the Berkley Feed Co.

In this project each of 12 carefully chosen 4-H Club members will receive 100 day-old Parmenter Red Chicks. These chicks are from Harris' R. O. P. Hatchery, Valdese, N. C., and are from excellent laying stock. The chicks will be delivered to the club members on Friday, March 7. Neither the club member nor his parents will pay for the chicks. In return for them, the club member agrees to feed, brood, house and properly care for them. Next fall 12 of the better grade pullets from each flock will be entered in a show and sale. The pullets will be judged by poultry specialists from State College and prizes awarded. The Danish system of judging will be used; i. e. each contestant will share in the prize money. Each pen of pullets will be placed in one of three groups, blue, red, or white and every pen of pullets in the same group will share equal prize money.

Several 4-H Club members, as well as several adult farmers, are planning to use infra-red light bulbs for brooding their chicks this year.

Miss Frances Boyce Honored On Birthday

Frances Boyce, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Boyce, entertained a number of her friends at a party Friday night at her home on West Church Street, in honor of her 14th birthday.

The dining room table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and centered by a bowl of jonquils and Dutch iris. The guests played several games after which the honoree opened her many attractive gifts. Refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake, salted nuts and mints were served the following guests: Pat Partin, Madeline Russell, Faye Haste, Kathryn Byrum, Anne Braswell, Fred Wood, Archie Patterson, Jimmy Ross, Robert Earl Edwards, Chan Wilson and Jerry Downum.

Auxiliary Of St. Paul's Has Interesting Meeting

The regular meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Episcopal Church was held Thursday, February 7, in the Parish House.

The speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Fred L. Outland, vice chairman and assistant editor of The Mission Herald. Mrs. Outland spoke fluently and inspiringly of the work of the Women's Auxiliary and its place as a living organization in the church.

Mrs. Sidney McMullan, chairman of the renovation committee, reported that work will be started on the floors of the Parish House immediately, and Mrs. Elton Forehand, chairman of the cleaning committee, reported a well organized plan to supervise the weekly cleaning of the Parish House.

Plans for the entertainment of the delegates to the Diocesan Convention of the Woman's Auxiliary to be held in Edenton April 23-24, are well advanced.

An interesting chart, showing 1951 income and expenditures of St. Paul's Auxiliary monies in comparison with two past years, was presented by Mrs. J. A. Moore. Mrs. Frank Wood was appointed chairman of the bazaar for this year.

The meeting closed with an announcement by Mr. Bennett that the World Day of Prayer will be held in all churches February 29, and services will be held in St. Paul's Church for all Edenton churches.
