Miss Jane Goodwin Addresses Ruritans

Club Starts Drive For Electric Clock at Chowan High

Miss Jane Goodwin, Chowan High School winner of the World Peace Contest sponsored by the Edenton Woman's Club, addressed the Ruritans at their regular meeting Monday night at the Community Building at Cross Roads. Miss Goodwin was introduced by W. J. Nichols, principal of the school. Other speakers on the program were Leon Privott and Sammy Byrum. String music was also furnished by Leon Privott, Sammy Byrum, Jack Evans and Britton Byrum.

Important business was transacted with the president, Tom Asbell, presiding. All members of the club voted unanimously to raise money to purchase an electric clock for Chowan High School. A voluntary collection was taken, with $38 being raised. One member agreed to lend the balance needed after $200 is raised by the membership. Several companies have agreed to give $25 toward the clock, and Coach C. P. Darr also pledged $25. Ruritan members will contact interested people to solicit funds in order to purchase the clock. Anyone interested is asked to contact any member of the Ruritan Club or W. J. Nichols.

Interest In Girl Scout Troop On Upward Trend

scout headquarters. For the time being, they are meeting in the school library due to the need of furniture for their new quarters. Mrs. Sheehy is seeking, and will appreciate any donations of furniture, books or anything that might be used in the club room. Particularly needed are chairs, she said. The only equipment on hand so far is six chairs, donated by Belk-Tyler, and a cabinet, a gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dulaney. A girl scout troop should be an asset to the town, and it is hoped local citizens will come forward with donations in an effort to keep the scouting spirit alive here.

The scout roster shows twenty-three intermediates, with ages ranging from 10 to 13 years. Meetings are held every Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock and scouts pay weekly dues of five cents. The troop is made up of three patrols, with the following serving as officers:

Flag Patrol—Araminta Hobbs, leader; Brenda Mooney, secretary; Jane Dulaney, treasurer.

Safety Patrol—Patricia Bunch, leader; Linda Leary, secretary; Ruth Stokely, treasurer.

Blue Bird Patrol—Sylvia Pearce, leader; Delores Basnight, secretary; Marie Small, treasurer. Rosa Hollowell is treasurer of the troop and Beverly Conn is scribe.

Miss Louise Smith is assistant scout leader and the Neighborhood Committee is composed of Mrs. W. J. Conn, chairman; Mrs. Guy C. Hobbs, Mrs. Worth Spencer, Mrs. Emmett Dale, Mrs. J. R. Dulaney and Mrs. Horace White.

Mrs. Sheehy came to Edenton last year when her husband, Major Sheehy, was transferred to the local Marine Base.
