

4-H Club Members Make Good Showing In Fat Stock Show

Robert Preston Dail Is Winner Of Top Honors For Chowan Group

Chowan County 4-H Club members did unusually well at the seventh annual Albemarle Fat Stock Show and Sale on May 13 and 14. There were eight fat steers exhibited by six 4-H Club boys and one girl. Robert Preston Dail, son of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Dail of Tyner, won top honors in the Chowan County group. Robert entered two steers in the show and sale, and his best steer graded prime. This steer, which weighed 930 pounds, was bought by Colonial Stores for 40 cents per pound. This steer was the 7th best of the 51 entries in the show. Robert's other steer, which graded choice, brought 37 cents per pound, and also was bought by Colonial Stores.

John Kramer, cashier, Bank of Edenton, loaned the money for the purchase of the steers. The loan will be repaid with interest, and this project has not only been a great benefit to Robert, but has also brought more money into the community.

L. E. Twine, of the Gliden community, was the only Chowan farmer who exhibited hogs at the show and sale. He exhibited one pen of 8 fat hogs. This pen was judged second best in its class.

Murray Baker and T. W. Hires, of the P. D. Gwaltney, Jr., and Co., of Smithfield, Va., bought seven hogs and paid excellent prices. They bought the reserve champion individual hog for 90c per pound. The grand champion of three hogs for 42c per pound and the reserve champion pen of three hogs for 57c per pound were also purchased.

Gibson Brickle of Colonial Motor Court, bought the fat steer which was shown by H. Ivey Ward, of Ryland. This steer graded choice and weighed 760 pounds.
