

Licenses Granted To Solicit Funds

Statute Requires License Granted By State Board

During the month of June licenses were granted by the State Board of Public Welfare to four organizations to conduct fund-raising campaigns through public solicitations for the support of their programs it is announced by Dr. Ellen Winston, Commissioner.

Three of these organizations were re-licensed under provisions of the State Solicitation Law. These are the Children's Home Society of North Carolina at Greensboro and the Boys' Clubs of America and the National Probation and Parole Association, both of which maintain headquarters in New York City.

The Stokes County Hospital Fund at Danbury, North Carolina received a license to solicit for the first time. The total amount which these four organizations will seek from the public at large in North Carolina is $220,082.00.

It was also announced that during the month of June the Boys' Athletic League and the Save the Children Federation of New York City, Father Flanagan's Boys' Home at Boys Town, Nebraska, the Gold Star Wives Foundation at Chicago, Illinois and the National Kids' Day Foundation of Hollywood, California, solicited citizens of this state. The State Board of Public Welfare is pointing out that such solicitations are in violation of the North Carolina Solicitation Law since these five organizations are not licensed in accordance with the state statute.

This Week's Poem

By WILBORNE HARRELL

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead
Who in his heart has never said:
This is my own, my native land..."
—Sir Walter Scott.

ODE TO AMERICA

This wilderness-wrested splendor that I see
Spread vast from sea to breaking sea,
My native land!
Launched in collective will of mighty men,
Welded by the courage of pioneers,
Thou stand; a sacred heritage to defend,
Great with the great, a peer among thy peers,
O hail to thee!
To setting sun thy tide of empire rolled,
Epic of death and desert sands and gold;
Across thy breast the covered wagon swayed
To homes for men who lived and loved . . . and prayed.

O Liberty!
To build and be!
Freedom's bulwark and liberty's last stand,
My native land!

C., Mrs. Lou Toppin, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Garriss, Mr. and Mrs. James Baker and children, Jimmie Anne and Glenda Sue from Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Betty Bunch, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Griffin, Gladys Griffin, Melvin Griffin, Roy Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Alma Griffin and baby, Alma Kay, Mr. and Mrs. James Dail, Mildred Bunch, Jackie Lane and Mazelle Leary.

Laundering Foundation Garments

Since soil and perspiration tend to rot fibers, frequent laundering of foundation garments will help save them. Elastic garments usually regain snugness after laundering. Have at least two garments alternating and washing them often. Don't rub—use a brush on soiled spots.

Never wring a girdle. Roll it in a Turkish towel and knead to remove excess moisture. Unwrap immediately and smooth out wrinkles.

To dry, hang by garters—away from heat. Press the fabric panels, but never iron elasticized sections.

Laundering Lingerie

Wash quickly in bowl full of rich, mild suds. Equeeze suds through garments, never twist or rub with cake soap. Roll in a Turkish towel to help dry them quickly. Dry away from direct heat. Press on wrong side while still damp, using a moderately warm iron.

Bras: Wash brassieres in lukewarm water and mild soap suds, using a brush on straps if necessary. Hang brassieres over the line to dry to avoid distorting shape. Don't hang by straps. Cups should be eased into shape with fingers. When pressing, do not touch the iron to rubber sections. Nylon bras don't really need pressing, but if you do press, be sure to use a moderately warm iron.

Stockings: Whether they are sheer or service weight, stockings will wear longer if you handle them gently. Wash hose by hand, and do so as soon after wearing as possible. Turn them inside out and wash in lukewarm sudsy water. Gently squeeze suds through and be easy on soiled spots, too.

Rinse thoroughly in lukewarm water, roll in a Turkish towel to absorb excess moisture, knead and unroll immediately. Hang over a towel-covered rod, allowing a third of the stocking top to hang over.

Local Hogs Entered In National Show

Clarence Chappell, Jr., And R. C. Ward Will Have Entries

Consigning hogs to the 1952 National Duroc Congress Show and Sale which will be held at the fairgrounds in Indianapolis, Ind., on August 1 and 2 will be Clarence Chappell, Jr., of Belvidere, N. C., with a bred gilt and a junior boar and R. C. Ward, Ryland, N. C., with a bred gilt.

At this Congress which is sponsored by the United Duroc Record Association and Purdue University, the Duroc Association will celebrate its 70th anniversary. The Congress will feature a type conference, judging contest, carcass demonstration and a gigantic Duroc sale.

In this Congress and Anniversary celebration, consignors will vie for $4,130 in prize money.

The Congress sale, which will be held August 2, will consist of 200 head of the Nation's top Durocs. Because of the large number there will be animals to fit everyone's need at a price they can afford.

This is a public event with an underlying purpose of improving and standardizing the Duroc breed. A free ham barbecue will be held between 11:00 and 12:30 P. M., Saturday, August 2 sponsored by Stark, Wetzel & Co.

HAYSEED

By UNCLE SAM

We had hoped to get in some fishing while visiting in Pamlico County but instead of fishing we assisted our friend and one-time roommate Rev. T. E. Maness in evangelistic services at Hobucken. We would not know where to go to find a better people than those living in Hobucken.

It was indeed a pleasure to be honored with the privilege of speaking each evening in Rev. Maness' church. The services were well attended throughout the entire meeting. While there we had the privilege of visiting in a number of homes some of these families were unable to attend services.

vices. The first Sunday of the meeting the District Superintendent held Quarterly Conference and also preached. There was a picnic dinner served on the church grounds. The afternoon was given over entirely to singing. Many singers were present from various churches. The pastor from the Free Will Baptist Church of Lowlands presided over this service.

On the last Sunday afternoon a baptismal service was held at Buford's Point and fifteen were baptized and received into church membership. Five others were received into membership elsewhere. The meeting was a profitable one to the church and much enjoyed by the speaker.
