

Methodists To Hold Unique Evangelistic Mission April 19-26

800 North and South Carolina Ministers Will Exchange Pulpits

Methodist churches of Virginia and Eastern North Carolina are preparing for a great simultaneous United Evangelistic Mission April 19-26. About 800 visiting pastors from surrounding states will assist the 800 ministers of the area in preaching and visitation evangelism crusades in the nearly 1,500 Methodist churches.

The Methodist Churches of this section will cooperate in this unprecedented endeavor, according to an announcement by the Rev. E. B. Edwards. Local church committees have been working for many weeks. Prayer groups have been formed. Lists

COLORED SCHOOL NEWS

Recently, D. F. Walker, principal, received a letter from the registrar of Hampton Institute at Hampton, Va., stating that Miss Linelle B. Small, a graduate of Edenton High School, merited a place on the Hampton Institute honor roll for the first semester of the 1952-53 term. The principal and his instructional staff were congratulated on the fine preparation given the students from Edenton High School, and without a solid high school foundation it would be almost impossible to become an honor student in college.

The PTA of Edenton High School will hold its regular monthly meeting in the school's auditorium Tuesday night, April 7, at 8 o'clock.

The monthly meeting of the faculty will be Tuesday night, April 7, in the school's library at 7 P. M. Alexander Blaine will preside.

The Chowan Unit of the N. C. T. A. will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday, April 9. We will have at this meeting the reports of the delegates.

The Seventh Grade will present to the public on Friday night at 8 o'clock a two-act play, "Never a Dull Moment" with 14 characters.

Edenton Seniors Will Take Trip To Greenville

Some members of the senior class of the Edenton Junior-Senior High School plan to make a trip to Greenville Friday, April 17, where Students' Day will be observed at East Carolina College.

The college has arranged an interesting program which among other activities includes visiting college classrooms and a baseball game.
