TIP FROM THE PROFESSIONAL DRIVER—The main thing on children's minds in the summertime is play. The street is just as much a playground to them as a vacant lot is, so it's up to all of us drivers to watch out for the kids all day long when that school is out.

Vets' Question Box

Q—I expect to graduate from law school under the Korean GI Bill. After I finish, would I be allowed to take further training on-the-job in a law office, for the study of clerkship?

A—You would be permitted to take this job training under the Korean GI Bill only if your State requires it as a condition that must be met before you may be admitted to the bar examination and to practice.

Q—I'm a World War II veteran and I was recalled to active duty. My NSLI term policy now is under waiver. Now that I'm about to be discharged, I want to pick up my policy again. I realize that my first premium is due 120 days after I get out of service. But, in case I need it, will I have the regular grace period, after that time, to pay it?

A—Yes. The regular 31-day grace period is allowed for payment of your first premium.

Q—I am a Korean veteran. After I got out of service, I changed my name. Would that bar me from getting a GI loan, since all my military and discharge records are made out in the name I no longer use?

A—No. If you are otherwise eligible, you would be entitled to the loan. However, you must submit competent evidence that establishes your identity.
