

Salvation Army Week May 20-26

Work of Organization Shows Phenomenal Progress

National Salvation Army Week, a period for celebrating the organization's progress in helping the nation's unfortunates, will start May 20 in hundreds of communities throughout the United States. Noting that The Salvation Army in the last ten years had provided 100,000,000 free meals, or the equivalent of one meal for more than half the country's population, National Commander Donald McMillan reaffirmed The Salvation Army's twin goals of physical regeneration and spiritual rebirth of the nation's unfortunates.

As in The Salvation Army's beginning—its first open-air meeting was held in New York in 1880—the organization's emphasis has been on spiritual help to the lowest-income segment of the population whose members have few churches, family or other supporting relationships. Last year Salvation Army officers and soldiers conducted indoor religious services attended by 18,457,423 persons.

Guidance to persons who found themselves facing domestic and other problems was given last year by The Army's Family Service Bureau to 324,039 individuals.

Assistance in catastrophes such as floods, storms, fires and wrecks is being provided on a nationwide scale by The Salvation Army. The organization cooperates closely with other organizations in such disasters, particularly in the operation of its growing fleet of mobile

PROUD WOMAN'S CLUB WINNERS

Members of the Edenton Woman's Club who attended the N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs Convention held recently in Durham proudly display the 10 top honors they won at the event. No other North Carolina Club shares this distinction with the Edenton organization. They are, left to right: Mrs. W. J. P. Earnhardt, immediate past president; Mrs. Thomas Ward, Mrs. John Kramer, Mrs. Earl Goodwin, Mrs. A. F. Downum, Mrs. A. R. Dulaney, Mrs. T. B. Smith, Mrs. Kermit Layton, Mrs. T. C. Cross, Jr., Mrs. Wendell Copeland, Miss Elizabeth Moore, Mrs. Joe Thorud and Mrs. Al Phillips. The latter two sang in the State Chorus, which consisted of 100 selected voices from clubs throughout the State. (Evelyn Leary Photo).

Records of The Salvation Army for 1955 show that lassies of The Army's League of Mercy visited more than two million persons in hospitals and homes for the aged, and that spiritual leadership and recreational opportunities were offered to almost four million boys and girls in Salvation Army youth centers.

Three Chowan Boys Training At Lackland

Carl Edwin Forehand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Forehand, Route 3; Robert Lloyd Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Garrett, Edenton, and Jack E. Hassell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Hassell, Route 2, are completing their Air Force basic military training at Lackland

Air Force Base in Texas. Lackland training is preparing them for entrance into Air Force technical training or for an Air Force duty assignment. The course includes a scientific evaluation of their aptitude and inclination for following a particular career field. Lackland, situated near San Antonio, is the site of Air Force basic military training for men and women and home of the USAF Officer Candidate School, of which the USAF Officer Candidate School, the USAF Pre-Flight School and Officers Pre-Flight Group are operating units.

A New Standard

Rufus—They say that radium is always giving off parts of itself and yet it never gets any less.
Goofus—Is that so? That's the sort of stuff they ought to make money of.

Day-Old Chicks Need "Best Foot Forward"

A day-old baby chick requires about as much attention of its caretaker as a newborn baby, according to W. G. Andrews, State College extension poultry specialist.

Andrews says that in order to set its best foot forward in life, a baby chick must be properly nourished, along with having many other comforts.

As he puts it, "We are growing the young orphans for either meat or egg production, and we can influence either of these courses favorably by placing a good starting mash before the baby chicks at all times. A good start in life by being fed this kind of ration can make a good end."

Poultry nutritionists have worked long and hard to find the correct proportions of each ingredient. Producers shouldn't alter this balance by feeding additional grain in the form of cracked corn or other cracked grain, thereby unbalancing the ration, Andrews warns.

Andrews points out also that the poultryman can save money by avoiding wasting of the feed. He says the mash hopper shouldn't be filled more than two-thirds full.

Almost Worth It
A man managed to board a street car the other day, after a hot with unwanted politeness, "you chase. On regaining his breath, he said, jokingly, to the conductor, "Suppose I'd slipped and lost a leg—what then?"
"Oh," answered the conductor, wouldn't have to do any more running then; we always stop for a man with a crutch.
