early on contracts other than for for the principal regions of the necessaries. Marriage is not a necessity. This does not prevent, however, a minor from suing a defendant who is of full age.

If no time for the wedding has been fixed, when must the marriage occur?

Where no time for the wedding has been fixed, failure to perform within a reasonable time may be considered a breach. The reasonableness of time depends upon the circumstances of the particular case. The age and pecuniary circumstances of the parties are fac-
