I enjoyed quite a round of golf Saturday with what must be four ies. of the world's worst golfers. They re Ken Hopballe, who wasn't realy so bad, Walt Waldrop, Jerry peanut butter on Ritz, milk Denning and Dick Skinner. The greens at the NAAS course weren't in playing condition, but that only accounted for about a quarter of bad shots we made.

But golf, in my opinion, is a her heart in an open letter to the public. Read this moving docusport for the relaxation and enjoyment of the participant. And that's what we got from it. Relaxation and enjoyment.

Well, hope you enjoyed the col umn and hope to see you next
