

N. C. State Fair Is Scheduled Be Held Week Of Oct. 16-20

Expected to Be Biggest In 103-Year History

The huge North Carolina State Fair grounds is becoming a beehive of activity as workmen make ready for the 1956 edition of North Carolina's biggest event. The State Fair will be held October 16 through 20 and is expected to be the biggest in the 103-year history of the event.

Dr. J. S. Dorton, manager, and his staff, plus hundreds of volunteers, have been at work for months laying plans to "feature" North Carolina's rapidly growing and highly important dairy industry.

There will be plenty of entertainment for all ages at this year's State Fair. Among the outstanding entertainment features will be Dorothy Collins and Russell Arms of television's "Hit Parade". They will be starred in the "Hit Parade Revue". Pat Boone, popular young singer from the Arthur Godfrey TV show, will star, along with other big names in the entertainment world, in "Midwestern Hayride", a high-stepping mixture of popular and hillbilly music. This colorful show will also play in the State Fair arena.

George Hamid's new outdoor musical revue, "Stairway to the Stars" will play nightly at 7:45 in front of the grandstand.

There will be harness horse races on three of the five days; auto races on Saturday of Fair Week will attract possibly the week's biggest crowds; James E. Strates Midway and Shows returns with more than 50 rides for adults and children.

IN SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY

Richard N. Hines, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hines, is enrolled in the University of North Carolina School of Dentistry at Chapel Hill.

Hines attended school at Virginia Episcopal School, Lynchburg, Va. His pre-dental work was done at the University of North Carolina.

The four year program of the School of Dentistry leads to a D.D.S. degree.

Hines is now in his first year of the course. He is scheduled to graduate in June, 1960.

Sunday School Lesson

THE GREAT INVITATION

International Sunday School Lesson For September 30, 1956.

Memory Selection: "The Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

—Revelation 22:17.

Lesson Text: Revelation 22:1-5; 8-9; 16-17.

Our lesson this week brings us to the close of God's Word. It is a perfect end, and the only possible end if God is omnipotent, as we believe He is.

The Word of God begins, in Genesis, with a picture of beauty, of perfection, with man, the highest creation of God, in perfect communion with him. Sin, in the form of a serpent, soon enters and comes between man and his God. Sin is committed, a curse is placed on man, and from that hour to the last hour of this earth's existence, under the dominion of man, there has been and will continue to be, a conflict between good and evil.

Only when man accepts Jesus Christ, God's Son, and the salvation from sin which he offers, can man hope to re-establish the communion of his soul with its maker, God.

The ultimate hope of every Christian is to be forever with his Lord, Jesus Christ. John, in his vision, received a revelation of the place where the redeemed souls will

GO TO SOME CHURCH EACH SUNDAY

Somebody's Neighbor

He probably doesn't look much like the man next door. He does his arithmetic with the aid of a centuries-old gadget called the abacus, and he writes the results in characters that would be quite undecipherable to you . . . yet you probably have far more in common with him than you'd ever dream.

Like you, he wants peace. Like you, he wants a good future for his children, and he wants them to have more than he has had. Like you, he has experienced happiness and sorrow, love and disillusionment. Like you, he prays.

On World Wide Communion Sunday, he will be going to Church and, though this may seem a bit odd to you, he will be praying for you. Yes . . . for you, and for everyone else in the world, friend or enemy.

Why not join him? Why not, on World Wide Communion Sunday, go to your own church and include him . . . him and everyone else . . . in your prayers.

Pray for peace, too. Remember, the power of prayer is a wonderful thing . . . especially when it is given many voices.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
