

Among Service People

By CHAY HOYLE

The bi-monthly bridge club of the Officers' Wives met in the Fire-lace Room of the Officers' Club Friday of last week. Hostess for the day was Mrs. Robert Holmes. Prizes were won by Mrs. Frances Thompson, Mrs. Gordon Keller and Mrs. Kenneth Byers.

Members of VMA-225 gave a farewell party last week in honor of Lt. and Mrs. W. C. Winters. Lt. Winters' "official orders" were handed by Squadron Commanding Officer Major N. D. Butler to Capt. Gregory, who read and presented them to the guest of honor. Lt. and Mrs. Winters will make their home in Jacksonville, Fla.

Sgt. Dolores Smith of Ft. Meyer, Va., is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, T-Sgt. and Mrs. John W. Coulter.

We would like to extend a welcome to Warrant Officer and Mrs. Paul H. Leahy. WO Leahy is at present attached to VMA-225 coming here from Grossiello Naval Air Station.

Major and Mrs. John Read entertained in their home in West-over Heights with a bridge party Saturday evening. Among those present were Major and Mrs. Gordon Keller, Lt. and Mrs. Jack E. Mimmack and Capt. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Byers.

The monthly business meeting of the Officers' Wives Club will be held at the Officers' Club next Wednesday, October 10, at 1:30. There will be a very interesting talk by Mrs. R. A. Tarkington on hat designing.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Jay McDonald and Lt. and Mrs. James Bowers attended a meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Elizabeth City last week. Col. McDonald gave a brief talk on the Edenton Naval Auxiliary Air Station and Lt. Bowers sang, accompanied by Mrs. McDonald.

There are a couple of brand new fathers in VMA-211. Lt. and Mrs. R. Wall have a baby girl and Lt. and Mrs. J. R. McQuillan a baby boy.

Lt. Jack E. Mimmack, our dental officer, attended this week the American Dental Association annual meeting in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

There were two promotions in VMA-211 last week. Sgt. Robert A. Richards and Sgt. John W. Garner were promoted to Staff Sergeant.

Mrs. Joseph F. O'Doley recently arrived in Edenton to join her husband, 1st Lt. Dooley for the duration of his tour here.

Lt. Col. Robert Holm left last week to assume new duties at Cherry Point. Mrs. Holm and children will remain at their home in Pembroke Circle for the time being. Mrs. L. K. Davis, Mrs. Frances Thompson, Mrs. W. S. McCaslin and Mrs. Jay McDonald were guests at the Edenton Tea Party Chapter of the DAR dessert bridge Thursday of last week.

Hornets Will Tackle Jacksonville Friday

The Hornets of Edenton Colored High School will play the Hawks at Jacksonville Friday night, October 5, at 8 o'clock. In the past two previous meetings of the two teams the Hornets were on the short end of the score.

The Hornets have been drilling hard for the past week trying to get ready for the strong Jacksonville team, who were last year's Class AA State champions.

In practice Captain George Roberts at tackle, Quarterback Thomas Nixon, Fullback Thomas Harris and substitute center Clifton Harris were very impressive.

The Hornets' record so far this season is two wins and one loss; both wins resulting from cancellations.
