

White and Ward Win In Fat Stock Show

Ronald's other steer, a Hereford, which weighed 807 pounds, was bought by the Bank of Edenton for 28 cents per pound.

Carlton Perry exhibited and sold two "Good" Hereford steers. One of them, an animal weighing 701 pounds, was bought by Sgt. Julian C. Rise, of the Edenton Naval Air Station for 20 1/4 cents per pound. T. W. Jones of Colonial Motor Court, bought Carlton's other steer which weighed 774 pounds for 21 1/4 cents per pound.

Jack Perry was proud winner of the reserve champion individual hog which weighed 229 pounds and was bought by Murray Baker for the P. D. Gwaltney, Jr., Packing Company for 34 1/4 cents per pound. Carroll Goodwin's individual hog won third prize and Richard White's individual hog won fourth place. Carroll's hog which weighed 186 pounds was bought by Kenneth Miller for Smithfield Packing Company for 20 1/4 cents per pound and Richard's hog which weighed 197 pounds was bought by Murray Baker for 19 cents per pound.

Leon Evans' pen of three hogs won reserve champion. His hogs, which weighed 623 pounds, were bought by Smithfield Packing Company for 18 cents per pound. Sherwood Harrell's pen of three hogs, which weighed 584 pounds, won third place in their class, and were bought by Smithfield Packing Company for 17 1/2 cents per pound. Richard White also won honors for his pen of three hogs, which weighed 614 pounds, won fourth prize and were bought by Murray Baker for the P. D. Gwaltney, Jr., Packing Company for 18 cents per pound.

Other 4-H and FFA Club members who entered hogs in the show and sale were: Danny Nixon (1), Gene Harrell (1), Joe Hollowell (4), Carlton and Ronald Perry (1 each) and Frank Evans, Dick and Ray Lowe, Lewis and Ray Evans, three each. A total of 36 hogs were entered and sold by 17 4-H and FFA Club members. Another hog which was slightly underweight for a ton hog (180-240 pounds) was sold by Bryant White after the sale. Murray Baker bought this hog which weighed 175 pounds for 17 1/4 cents per pound.

Prizes for the contest were furnished by the sponsor, the Edenton Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Jack Perry won first place in fitting and showmanship of steers. This prize was an engraved trophy ribbon and $10.00. Ronald Perry won second place in this competition. He was awarded a ribbon and $7.00. Bryant White, who won third place in this contest of steers was awarded a ribbon and $5.00.

H. Ivey Ward won first place in fitting and showmanship of hogs. Dick Lowe won second place, and Ronald Perry won third place. Each of these winners was awarded a ribbon.

As exhibitor of the grand champion steer, Bryant White was awarded a beautiful engraved trophy ribbon and $10.00. He won an additional $7.00 because his steer graded choice. For showing the reserve champion steer, Jack Perry won a trophy, ribbon and $8.00. Ronald Perry won a ribbon and $6.00 for showing the third place steer.

Each contestant whose steer graded choice was awarded $7.00 and each contestant whose steer graded good was awarded $5.00.

Frederic Matthews of Hertford served as auctioneer and did an excellent job.

The Chowan Extension Service and the Vocational Agriculture Department of Chowan High School wish to express their appreciation to the sponsor, the Edenton Jaycees, to the buyers, to the Chowan County Board of Commissioners and the Edenton Town Council and to all the business firms who contributed of their time, talents and money to make the third annual Chowan Fat Stock Show and Sale a success. The judges and auctioneer also are to be commended for their excellent work.

Jaycees Will Attend State Convention

With the state Junior Chamber of Commerce scheduled to hold its annual convention in Asheville May 9 and 11, six Edenton Jaycees are planning to attend. In the Edenton group will be Warren Twiddy, Tom Shepard, Tom Byrum, Joe Conger, Jr., James Bond and Dick Dixon. Possibly others will also make the trip.
