

Music Festival Delights Many On Friday Night

Various Numbers Are Greeted With Thunderous Applause

With the auditorium at the Elementary School almost filled, a goodly number of people thoroughly enjoyed the spring music festival presented Friday night by the Edenton Elementary School and the Junior-Senior High School. Participating in the recital were the Junior Band, the Elementary Chorus, Senior High School Chorus, Treble Clef Club and the High School Concert Band.

The chorus numbers were directed by Mrs. Mary Leggett Browning and the band numbers by Miss Lula N. Williams. Misses Patricia Bunch, Mary Pearl Harrell and Jo Ann Leary were accompanists.

That the efforts of the two directors as well as those taking part were very much enjoyed and appreciated was reflected in the thunderous applause which followed each number.

The Junior Band played "Forward," "Alpha," "Zephyr," "Allegiance" and "Iris."

The Elementary Chorus sang "I Can't Do The Sum," "Toyland" and "Little Two-Deer And The Bear."

Numbers sung by the Senior High Chorus included "Grant Us Peace," "The Long Day Closes" and "The Old Ark's A-Movin'." "Hi-Lili, Hi-Lo," "And This Is My Beloved," "If I Loved You," and "Moments To Remember."

Two numbers were presented by the Treble Clef Club, "Anywhere I Wonder" and "I Could Have Danced All Night."

The High School Concert Band played "American Patrol," "Overture," "The Bells of St. Mary's," "The Glow Worm," "Victor Herbert Favorites," "Trombone Toboggan" and "Washington Post March."

To complete the program the Senior High Chorus, Junior High Choir and High School Concert Band presented "Born To Be Free" and the Edenton High School Song.

Former Chaplain Visitor In Edenton

Chaplain and Mrs. G. H. Wheeler and two sons spent Tuesday in Edenton visiting friends. Chaplain Wheeler was stationed at the Edenton base in 1944-45 and is now chaplain on the USS Taconic, AG-17, in Norfolk. He will leave Monday for a five-months tour with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Friends will be interested to know that he has recently been selected for a promotion to lieutenant commander to commander. His family will reside in Norfolk while he is in the Mediterranean.

PORTRAIT OF AN ARTIST—Kokomo, the celebrated painting chimpanzee, jumps in exultation in New York after finishing his latest work, lying on the table. He may never challenge the masters, but the 1½-year-old chimp is apparently delighted at his efforts to make monkeys out of his fellow artists.
