20 Years Ago

Edenton Rotarians and Lions went on record as favoring a district full-time health set-up. With an ABC election only a few days away both sides were claiming a victory.

W. O. Elliott underwent an operation in the Norfolk General Hospital for appendicitis.

Louis Harrell, Luther Bunch and Frank Perry organized a Ford agency in Edenton, located at the corner of Broad and Water Streets.

Dr. Martin Wisely became associated with Dr. J. A. Powell in the practice of medicine on East King Street.

Col. John D. Langston of Goldsboro and William L. Knight of Weldon, an outstanding Methodist lay leader, spoke at the Baptist Church and in the new Chowan High School auditorium respectively.

The Rev. E. L. Wells, pastor of the Baptist Church, and the Rev. George W. Blount, pastor of the Methodist Church, exchanged pulpits for one service, each one speaking strenuously against voting for the establishment of an ABC liquor store.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Earnhardt were chaperones of a dance held at the Parish House for the younger social set of Edenton. Hotel Joseph Hewes announced the addition of water softening equipment for the hotel. Edenton began to feel the effects of moving the state highway commission district engineering office as the result of the commission's reorganization. R. R. Roper went to Elizabeth City, George W. Mack to Murfreesboro and W. J. Davis to Tarboro.

Day of Newton Square, Pa., to Philip Sidney McMullan, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Sidney McMullan of Edenton, took place at two o'clock on Saturday, June 22, at St. Alban's Episcopal Church, Newton Square, with the Rev. William A. Powell officiating. The bride's attendants were Joann Chandler of Wilmington, Delaware, and Suzanne Rie of West Chester, Pa. Peter D. Day, brother of the bride, served as best man and William W. Werber of Hyattsville, Maryland, was usher. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

C. C. Wiggins Is Given Promotion

C. C. Wiggins received notice last week from W. H. Allen, civilian personnel officer of the Fifth Naval District, that he had been promoted to supervisory construction representative (General) GS-9, effective June 16. Mr. Wiggins has been with the District Public Works Office for the past four years. He has been stationed at the Edenton Naval Auxiliary Air Station for the past two years as a construction inspector. Wiggins will work in the office of the resident officer in charge of construction, under the supervision of R. R. Hall, chief inspector.

Mr. Hall says he thinks Mr. Wiggins well deserves the promotion and that he has been a very conscientious worker and has worked for the best interests of the government in all respects, at the same time being fair to the contractor.

Mr. Wiggins is married to the former Virginia Laughon of Davenport, Washington, and has two children. His home is at Cypress Lodge, Edenton.
