r. Rufus Morgan : LANDAN MANAGAMAN M Minister Of Year

Dr. A. Rufus Morgan of Macon Junty, N. C., is named North Irolina "Rural Minister of the r" in the July issue of The ressive Farmer magazine.

A native of Macon County, Dr. ergan served in a number of opal pastorates in North and Carolina before returning his home county in 1940. He s had charge of from three to It churches there since that and as established several new hurches, including one on the Cherokee Indian Reservation.

The newly nonored rural minster has served on the Town and Country Committee of the North Carolina Council of Churches and for several years has been a member of the Southern Advisory Committee of the National Council of Churches.

This is the ninth year that Rural Minister awards have been presented in Southern states by Emory University of Atlanta, Ga., and The Progressive Farmer to preachers who have given outstanding service to farm people.

GUM POND CLUB MEETS

Gum Pond Home Demonstration Club met in June with Mrs. Marvin Smith and Mrs. Will There were 11 members present. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Louise Wilson, the neeting was presided over by Mrs. Mable Bass, vice president. The meeting was opened by all singing "Puffer Billies." During the business Miss Maidred Morris, home agent, discussed the tour of Williamsburg and Jamestown being planned for the club women in the county July 3.

After the business Miss Morris gave a demonstration on the "Utility Room". She stated that this is a new idea in houses today. Anyone planning to build or remodel should consider including a utility room in their home.

During the social hour Miss Morris presented each member a bib to wear while refreshments were being served stressing the fact that June is "Dairy Month." The hostess served ice cream and

TO SOME CHURCH EACH S

Some say you find God just as well in a garden, in the woods, or on a golf course as in a church—that God is everywhere. But be honest about it.

Are you not more apt to think of weeds, or mosquitoes, or a poor shot than you are of God? And after all, you have made this outing to seek pleasure.

But when you go to church, it is with the specific intention of worshipping. Here you engage in prayer, praise and thanksgiving. Here you mingle with people who are seeking God and have come to feel His presence. In the quiet beauty of a church you find few outside distractions, and you know that this place is dedicated to the service

For peace and happiness which comes from really feeling God's presence, worship in the house of the Lord this Sunday—make it a regular practice.

ALL FOR THE CHURCH The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regu and support the Church They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily. Book
