

Frances Stokes Becomes Bride Of John R. Prevatte

Ceremony Held In Local Methodist Church Sunday Afternoon

In a candlelight setting at the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon, July 7, at 5 o'clock, Miss Frances Stokes, daughter of Mrs. Walter Leslie Morgan, became the bride of John Richard Prevatte, son of Mrs. Woodberry L. Thompson of Lumberton, N. C. The double ring ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, the Rev. Earl Richardson.

Miss Jane DuLaney, soloist, and Mrs. J. J. Ross, organist, presented ed a program of nuptial music before the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, W. Leslie Morgan, the bride wore a floor length wedding gown of Gallon Imported Rose-point lace over taffeta. The gown, designed and made by the bride's mother, was fashioned with a serebra neckline, long sleeves ending in wedding points over the hands, long fitted bodice with very full gathered skirt. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was arranged from a matching lace Juliet cap, touched with seed pearls. She carried her first Bible, a gift of her maternal aunt, showered with frenched carnations, white stephanotis and centered with a white orchid.

Miss Theda Ann Goodwin was maid of honor. She wore a pale yellow nylon net and taffeta floor length dress, fashioned with a strapless bodice with shoulder-ettes and carried a maline heart with bouquets of garnet roses and yellow carnations. Her headpiece was of matching nylon net. Bridesmaids were Miss Elsie Virginia Jones, cousin of the bride, and Miss Betty Jane Byrum, both of Edenton. They wore dresses of pale green nylon net and taffeta styled identically to the honor attendant. Their headpieces and maline hearts were identical to the maid of honor. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Goodwin of Elizabeth City and Miss Roseanne Ward of Conway, N. C., cousin of the bride. Their dresses of pale green nylon net and taffeta were made similar to the other attendants and they carried small maline hearts. Their headpieces were identical to the other attendants.

Milton Ward Flynn, cousin of the bride, of Newport News, Va., was best man. Groomsmen were John Augustus Harrell, Jr., of Round Hill, Va., William Errol Flynn of Edenton, both cousins of the bride, Gene Spence and GASOLINE OR VODKA?—Puzzling out the ills that strike autos is tough enough when it's an American make but Vern Schield of Waverly, Iowa, right, and Edward F. Ober, science magazine engineering consultant, have even a harder job. They're trying to interpret a Russian-language manual for the M-20 Pobeda, a 1937 Soviet car. Schield purchased the car in Finland for $1,890 and now has it on display in Chicago.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of pale blue Pima cotton with matching accessories and her corsage was a purple throated orchid. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy chiffon dress with white accessories and her corsage was a purple throated orchid. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. N. L. Ward, wore a grey printed chiffon dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses. The bridegroom's grandmother wore navy blue crepe and her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex. For traveling the bride wore a seafoam green linen sheath dress with white accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Prevatte will be at home in Emporia, Va., where Mr. Prevatte is with the Stone Broadcasting Company.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Thaddeum Prevatte, Mrs. E. T. Prevatte, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Greening, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hadden, Miss Elaine Hadden, all of Lumberton; Mrs. N. L. Ward, Mrs. J. A. Harrell, Johnny Harrell, Round Hill, Va.; Miss Glenn Ward, Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Miley, Charlston, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Goodwin, Misses Peggy and Sarah Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Symons, Miss Kay Symons of Elizabeth City; Mr. and Mrs. Linwood Ward, Roseanne and Taylor Ward, Mrs. Annie G. Taylor and Miss Mabel Garris of Conway, N. C.; James Bradley and Gene Spence of Emporia, Va.

In dogs over 8 years of age, nearly 80 per cent have chronic kidney infections, veterinary authorities say.

ESPECIALLY FOR PET OWNERS

In the veterinary field, fluorescent-dyes have been used to mark disease producing germs such as the virus which causes canine distemper and infectious hepatitis in dogs and thus study the development of immune antibodies. Veterinary authorities believe this technique may be a valuable aid for disease diagnosis and research.

A five year study of dogs with fractures repaired by placing a permanent pin in the center of the bone requiring support concluded that this method is safe on animals suffering from fracture of the long bones in their limbs, according to the Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association.
