NAAS NOTES

By CONNIE ATHERTON

Hello again—
Well, news at long last: It is almost too good to be true! So let's just start right in.

The O' Wives luncheon for the month of August was very different. First, Mrs. Todd Whitten, past president, was presented with a gift; second, we visited Mr. Harding's estate, Sycamore Plantation. The house will be three hundred years old in 1960, and is full of beautiful antiques. You people that have not been out to see it should go. Many thanks to Mr. Harding for permitting us to go through his lovely home.

Not many people went visiting over Labor Day, but I know of three families who did.

Capt. and Mrs. George Metz and son were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Erskin in Greensboro. Lt. and Mrs. Bob Noble were at Nags Head, and Bill and I were also there.

The Emerson family recently returned from Long Island, N. Y., where they visited family and friends. While they were there, they saw Col. and Mrs. William Case and family off for Italy. We have had visitors to Edenton, however, to name a few, have been:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winters, parents of Mrs. Len Palmer; Mrs. Joseph Ferone, mother of Mrs. Harry Gillis; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hendricks, parents of Mrs. Bob Noble, and Miss Helen Duffey and Jack Trainor, friends of yours truly.

Lt. and Mrs. Donal F. Dalton, USN, had as their guests for Labor Day week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Passapae and daughter Charlotte of Baltimore, Md.

Mrs. Nina Keys was guest of honor at a recent shower. Hostesses were Mrs. Nina Lowry and Mrs. Marge Roth.

Maj. and Mrs. Wm. Zane have moved to Cypress Road in Westover Heights. More new residents in Westover, Lt. and Mrs. Bruce Emberton.

Little Miss Randi Nash, daughter of Lt. and Mrs. Jim Nash, was the principal figure at a recent birthday party. She celebrated her fourth birthday last Friday.

Mrs. C. W. Boggs was hostess at the last MABS coffee, which was held last Thursday. Present were four new members: Mrs. Pat Widdick and Mrs. Shirley Smith, both formerly associated with 211 and Mrs. E. E. Smith.

We would like to welcome aboard Capt. and Mrs. E. E. Smith who just arrived from Pensacola, Fla. They are residing at 120

ABUNDANT LIFE

BY ORAL ROBERTS

LEE QUIT WHIMPERING—PAID THE MORTGAGE

There are many, many people in this world who get a peculiar kind of pleasure out of feeling sorry for themselves. They cringe before life's problems. They whimper and whine and say, "Nobody has it as hard as I do!" I heard the story about the two buckets that went to the well. One of the buckets sobbed and cried. "No matter how full I go away from the well, I always have to come back empty." The other one laughed and said, "No matter how empty I come to the well, I always go away full."

Lee Braxton, the national radio director of our world-wide broadcast, told me that self-pity almost ruined him. Back when the depression was at its worst he was in hard circumstances. The mortgage people were coming to foreclose on his modest little home. At the same time his small business was about to go under. He walked off and sat down in a room by himself and said, "Why is everybody picking on me?"

Recently he told me what he did that day as he sat in the little room. He said, "I was sitting there with the whole world on my shoulders. I felt so discouraged, so down and out that I knew if I didn't get hold of myself I might do something terrible. I kept wringing my hands and saying, 'Oh, why does everybody have to pick on me? Why does this have to happen to me? I didn't know where else to turn or who else to see.'"

When a storm strikes an eagle he sets his wings in such a way that the winds lift him above the storm by its very fury. This is God's way for us. With the right use of our faith, we will not fear the storms that come our way. It is the set of our faith that causes us to rise above the storms. Have faith in God!

Jacqueline Pugh Weds Jackie Lewis

Jacqueline Pugh, assistant home agent in Chowan County, became the bride of Jackie Lewis of High Point on Saturday, August 31.

The wedding, which was attended by relatives and close friends of the couple, was held in Wesley Memorial Chapel in High Point. Music was provided by Howard Coble, tenor, and Helen Mattone, organist. Ushers were Charles Moore and Robert Jones, brothers-in-law of the couple. Mrs. Charles Moore, sister of the bride, registered the guests. Dr. C. E. Rozzell, former teacher of the bride and bridegroom at High Point College, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones entertained at a reception at their home in High Point following the ceremony.

The bride wore a street-length dress of rose beige shantung with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Pugh, mother of the bride, wore aqua shantung and Mrs. Lewis wore blue lace. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

The bride has been assistant home agent in Chowan County since June 1. The bridegroom, a veteran of the Korean War, is a chemistry major at High Point College.

Post Office Receives Motor Safety Award

Postmaster J. L. Chestnut last week received an award from the Post Office Department for motor vehicle safety. The certificate now hangs in the lobby of the Post Office.

Accompanying the award was a letter congratulating the drivers at the Edenton Post Office who during 1956 recorded an accident frequency, casualty and cost rate which is below the average for the Atlanta Region.

"In presenting you with the attached award," said H. B. Dean, regional director, "we comment you and your personnel for the distinction you have achieved in the highly important field of motor vehicle accident prevention. Further we wish for you an even safe operation in the coming months."
