

Recent Bride

MRS. WILLIAM CRAIG LEARY

Miss Janet Marie Gaynor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Early Gaynor of Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina, became the bride of William Craig Leary, son of Mrs. Julius Craig Leary of Edenton, and the late Mr. Leary, in an afternoon ceremony September 27, in the First Methodist Church at Roanoke Rapids.

The Rev. Robert L. Jerome, pastor, officiated.

Nuptial music was presented by Miss Lois Turner, organist, and Fred Biggs, soloist.

The vows were spoken in front of basket arrangements of white chrysanthemums and daisies flanked with seven branched candleabra with a background of woodwardia fern.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk mist taffeta with a Sabrina neckline outlined in Chantilly lace. Bands of the same lace ding trip to western North Carolina and the mountains. For traveling the bride changed to a del blue wool dress. She wore matching accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The bride attended Woman's College of the University of North Carolina and is employed with Virginia Electric & Power Company. The bridegroom served with the United States Air Force and is a graduate of North Carolina State College. He is now employed with J. P. Stevens & Company, Inc., in Roanoke Rapids.

The couple will make their home in Roanoke Rapids.
