

The Roundup

By WILBORNE HARRELL

Editor's Note: This week's ROUNDUP is written by Guest Columnist Shirley Twiddy, pinching for W. H. who is taking some time off for some special work.

The logic of a child is a most amazing thing; the humor of their chatter, none the less authentic.

Having just read "Kids Say The Darndest Things," by Art Linkletter, I recommend it with vigor to all. It is not only good entertainment and worthwhile but, its humor is not likely to be equalled. It consists of rare gems, stemming from either innocence or knowledge and who can say which, that Mr. Linkletter has collected through many years of interviews with children on his daily TV show "House Party".

Hertford Takes Whole Tournery

Hertford's boys and girls took home all championship honors of the Albemarle Conference tournery at Ahsoskie Saturday night. The boys defeated Ahsoskie 49-40 and the girls whipped Edenton's Acesets 30-25.

The Acesets advanced into the CONTRASTS—Being a lover of winter, I am not annoyed by it. But, for those who abhor its cold freshness, a word. It is simply a matter of patient expectation. Take a walk and look at the trees swinging their bare limbs in time with swift winds. Look at them and say, soon there will be leaves, leaves so green as gall and bright as emeralds. And, as you continue where the freezing cold snow has lain, think, a month or two will bring grass that wears diamonds in the early morning sun. Look about you at the wet gray mist of fog, and believe that soon, very soon, a blueness beyond all blues will take its place, bringing a warmth from a blazing sun and mingled with a breeze so gentle as a calm sea. Is there a thing lovelier than winter? If so, surely it is spring.

final round by defeating Ahsoskie, 34-32 Thursday night. Linda Spencer got 12 points and Sara Smith and Mary Ann Overton 11 each for Edenton. Kay Krause hit 16 for Ahsoskie. Billy Cook Griffin turned in his best performance in a losing cause as he had 28 tallies as the Aces lost to Ahsoskie 55-53. Robert White also played one of his best games, scoring 10 and

I BELIEVE—Few people realize the benefits of an education—until it is too late. It is surprising, the amount of people of above average ability who do not use their talents and broaden their minds. And, amazing those who do not grasp the first opportunity to do so. That being high school. This is the age of specialists and, will be more so in the future. There is only one way to cope with it and that is preparation through education. Education, understanding and peace—these things go hand in hand.

Greet those you meet with a warming smile, A bright hello and a nod; For among them may be a friend, A gift to you from God.

Elton Bass 9 for the Aces. Erinkley Overton scored 13 to pace Ahsoskie.

Tournament scores were as follows:

Wednesday—Girls: Plymouth 43, Scotland Neck 40; boys: Hertford 49, Plymouth 41.

Thursday—Girls: Edenton 32, Ahsoskie 32; boys: Ahsoskie 55, Edenton 52.

Friday—Girls: Hertford 45, Plymouth 35; boys: Hertford 50, Scotland Neck 48, overtime.
