

Capacity House Sees 'Springtime'

The auditorium at the Junior-Senior High School was filled to capacity Friday night when the Senior High School Chorus presented a romantic operetta "Springtime" under the direction of Mrs. Mary L. Browning and Mrs. Alice Belch as dramatic coach.

The play was very well presented with various members of the cast performing their parts with perfection, so that the play was very enjoyable and considered a big success from every viewpoint.

Those taking part in the operetta were: Rebecca Craft, Minta Hobbs, Dolly Wright, Billy Wilkins, Brenda Mooney, Ray Ward, Peggie Elliott, Harriet Bond, Faye Cayton, Roger Lamb, Cecil Fry, Gus Hughes, Jane DuLaney, John Mitchener, Janet Bunch, Erwin Griffin, Joe Mitchener, Jim Partin, Billy Cozart, Charles Wood, Betty Privott, Chloe Boothwright, Linda Spencer, Cynthia Spencer, Sally Privott, Jennie Cozzens, Kathryn Wozelka, Judy Israel, Milly Price, Milly Willis, Jimmie Cozzens, Carolyn Perkins, Phyllis Twiddy, Marian Bunch, Virginia Jones, Eleanor Boyce, Faye Copeland, Emily Shaw, Ida Campen, Anne Jenkins, Judy Riley, Catherine Bass, Beth Tolley, Kay Lowe, Judy Adams, Sally Privott, Jovce Mitchell, Linda Brabble Jimmy Rogerson, Richard Cobb, Wayne Ashley, Howard Askew, Warren Elliott. Accompanists were Betsy Ross and Jo Ann Leary.

Ivy Chesson, Jr., president-elect of the Woman's Club, and Mrs. Ed G. Bond, chairman of the recent pilgrimage.

The ladies and the tea made quite a hit with the guests. The tea was sponsored by the Peoples Bank & Trust Company, the Edenton Restaurant and Hotel Joseph Hewes.

Others on the reception committee were Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher, Mrs. J. W. Davis, who served as a guide; W. P. Jones, vice president, Chamber of Commerce; Grayson Harding, chairman of the board; Ernest J. Ward, Jr., president of the Ocean Hiway Association; Mrs. Goldie Niblett, local AAA representative; Richard Schuman, general manager, WCDJ; Harry Smith, Jr., executive vice president of the Chamber of Commerce; Gilliam Wood, County Commissioner; Richard S. Atkinson, Jr., chairman of the Advertising and Promotion Committee.

An inspection of the Court House, which was very realistic as court was in session, the Court House Green, the teapot marker and the Joseph Hewes monument followed. The party then boarded the tour bus for an inspection of the James Ireddell house and St. Paul's Church. The group left for Elizabeth City at 4:45 P. M.

Thorud thanked all those who assisted the committee. "This has been a most successful reception which is bound to bring far-reaching benefits to Edenton. We are grateful for your cooperation," he said. Mrs. W. L. Boswell, Mrs. Gilliam Wood, Mrs. Joe Thorud, Atkinson, Wood and Harding were members of the committee.

Edenton Makes Hit With Group Tourists

W. Davis, committee member, and Thorud met the party at the Chowan River highway bridge. The tour bus, escorted by Edenton police and State Highway patrolmen, was brought into town via South Granville Street, through West King Street to Hotel Joseph Hewes.

Three attractive hostesses dressed in 18th century costumes greeted the guests and served Penelope Barker tea and cookies. They were Mrs. R. J. Boyce, president, and Mrs. Wes-
