Completes Course

Airman Stephen J. Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Hopkins of Edenton, has completed his initial course of Air Force basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base in Texas. He has been selected to attend the technical training course for medical specialists at Lackland. Airman Hopkins is a graduate of Edenton Junior-Senior High School.

Basic airmen at Lackland are selected for specialized training at technical schools on the basis of their interests and aptitudes. They are reassigned to the school after four weeks of basic, and are given additional military basic training along with the technical subjects.

Peace Officers Relief Fund In Chowan Formed

Following the enactment into law of the Peace Officers Protection Association by the General Assembly, the Chowan County Peace Officers Relief Fund was organized Wednesday of last week.

At an organizational meeting Chief of Police George Dail was elected chairman with the following comprising the executive board: Mayor David Holton; W. E. Bond, chairman of the County Commissioners; Sheriff M. Earl Goodwin and Highway Patrolman T. E. Vaughan. Mrs. Lena Leary was appointed to serve as secretary-treasurer of the local organization.

Under the law a dollar fee will be added on all court costs which will be turned into the relief fund. The fund will go toward retirement, hospitalization and other relief as the executive board sees fit to grant.

4-H Church Sunday Observed May 24th

Four-H Church Sunday was observed at Center Hill Baptist Church May 24. Joey Asbell was in charge of the service and several 4-H Club members took part on the program.

After the call to worship and the invocation were given by Joey Asbell, Sondra White sang "The Lord's Prayer". The 50th Anniversary of 4-H Club Work in North Carolina, was given by Jimmy Turner, followed by special music given by a 4-H group from Macedonia Baptist Church, Doris Jean Cale, Kay and Nelia Lowe and Gail Hare. Susan Evans read the Scripture, after which Emmett Jones, Jr., gave an introduction to the program.

The program had as its theme "The Heart H". Frances Smithson took the part "A Heavy Heart"; Frances Jordan, "A Healthy Heart"; Judy Haste, "A Humble Heart"; and Joanne Copeland "A Faithful Heart." Mrs. Emmett Jones, local leader of Center Hill 4-H Club, trained the group.

After the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Jones entertained the 4-H group at her home.

BEECH FORK CLUB MEETS

The Beech Fork Home Demonstration Club held its regular meeting in May in the home of Mrs. Stillman Leary with all members present except one.

An inspiring devotional was given by Mrs. Paul Ober, followed with prayer by Mrs. Elsworth Halsey.

The food conservation leader gave the women "The Cold Facts About Safe Food". Many helpful hints about packing foods to freeze were given by her.

Mrs. John Layton gave a report on "How to Make Plants Bloom". "Plants may fail to bloom for several reasons but not enough sunlight or growing too fast," she said, "were the main two reasons."

"Coordinating Color Throughout the House" was the theme of the demonstration given by Miss Catherine Aman. Said Miss Aman, "A home should express the personality of those who live there and using your family's color preferences will give a more personal touch to your home." To add to her demonstration, she showed color schemes and decorated three houses, using floor plans furnished by Extension specialists and actual fabrics, tapes, wall and floor coverings.

After the demonstration the hostess served tasty refreshments of cold drinks and cookies.
