

Planning Program Presented To Local Governing Bodies By Woman's Club Directors

Great Change Is Proposed For the Court House Green and a Park at the Foot of Broad Street

Members of the Community Planning Committee of the Edenton Woman's Club on Monday morning met with members of the County Commissioners and Town Council, at which time a long range planning program was presented which is calculated to be one of the most important steps ever taken to make Edenton more attractive.

Mrs. Wesley Chesson, president of the club, expressed her appreciation for the presence of the town and county governing bodies, as well as a number of other interested citizens. She then introduced Mrs. W. J. P. Earnhardt, who presented the planning idea which she said was approved by the board of directors of the club and would be presented for the club's approval at a meeting Wednesday.

The planning program has to do with the Court House Green

Officials Of Fair Urge Cashing Of Checks At Once

All persons who had exhibits in the Chowan County Fair should have received their premium checks which were mailed October 30, according to Robert Marsh, president.

"In case your exhibit won a prize and you have not received your check, or if your check is incorrect," says Mr. Marsh, "please contact R. E. Leary, secretary-treasurer, Monk Mills, manager, or myself immediately. Be sure to bring your claim check for any other records that you have, as there were hundreds of exhibits and the claim check is the only method of identification.

"If you have received your premium check and it is correct, please cash it at once, as Mr. Leary is very anxious to close out his records. All checks must be cashed within 30 days after issue. If you lose your check contact Mr. Leary immediately. Don't wait several months."

Open Nov. 11

In response to inquiries received at the Chamber of Commerce office, Harry Smith, Jr., said that local stores will be open all day Wednesday, November 11, Veterans' Day.

Edenton Aces And Indians Of Ahoskie Battle To Scoreless Tie On Hicks Field Friday Night

In a game packed with thrills Edenton's Aces and Ahoskie Indians played a scoreless tie on Hicks Field Friday night. It was the third game the Aces were held scoreless, but to date in the nine games played they have yielded only 8 points. Both teams on Friday night were at their best, but neither one could muster up enough power to cross the touchdown stripe.

The Aces seriously threatened three times, but in all three instances were unable to gain the necessary yardage. In the first quarter, the first time they gained possession of the ball, the Aces moved the ball from their own 25 to the Ahoskie 15 and first down. However, in the second quarter, the Aces lacked a few inches of first down, so Ahoskie took over on their own 4 yard line.

Near the end of the game the Aces again were threatening. They

Music Department Will Present Operetta "The King Sneezes" In Elementary School Nov. 13th

The Music Department of Edenton City Schools announces the coming performance of an operetta, "The King Sneezes," by the elementary choral group of Edenton Graded School on the night of Friday, November 13, in the auditorium of the Elementary School on Court Street.

"The King Sneezes" is laid in the mythical village of Cranberry Cross, where there lives a much troubled royal family. The king, played by Bill Mitchener, is subject to violent fits of sneezing, and has gone so far as to promise half of his kingdom to the person who can cure him. His queen, played by Barbara Wallace, and their daughter, the princess Lucy-Lacy-Lisabel, played by Ivy Lowe, have their own troubles, too, and not until a mysterious stranger comes to town is there any sign that their tangled affairs can be brought to a happy ending. Wesley Chesson, Jr., plays the part of the hero, Max Luckyfoot; Larry Parks is the town watchman; Norfleel Pruden the head baker; Chris Cordon, the head tailor; Linda Hollowell, the water witch and Mike de Bois the queen's page. There are choruses of village girls, bakers, tailors, and willow tree fairies, whose singing and dancing should make the production most entertaining.

The operetta is directed by Mrs. Mary L. Browning, the school's music consultant, with Becky Williford as student assistant and Jean Goodwin as accompanist. The operetta will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. The customary admission will be charged at the door.

About 1,500 Youngsters Enjoy Annual Halloween Party Held On Playground Saturday Night

About 1,500 children attended the annual Halloween party which was again sponsored by the Edenton Woman's Club Saturday night at the playground. The party was gay, colorful and loads of fun for all in spite of a threat of being rained out.

The costumes were not outstanding this year with cash prizes being awarded to Kay Kramer and Charlie Overman for the best costumes, Allen Mills and Yvonne Alexander for the most comical and Chester Weikel and Cazol Lassiter for the most original costumes.

Cash prize for the best float went to the Sleeping Beauty float on which were riding Toni Paige, Vickie Paige, Crystal Paige, Sherry Jethro and Delaney Jethro.

The marked success of the party was due to the generous contributions of the merchants and professional men and to the cooperation of the Varsity Club, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, as well as of many individuals.

The Woman's Club Chairmen wish to express their appreciation to the town employees who not only put up the lights, but assisted in erecting the booths.

Also to Jackson's Radio & TV Service for furnishing the public address system.

And as always for the contributions of "Izzy" Campen, originator of the Halloween party, for his assistance and particularly for making the witch talk again this year. As well as to the Rev. George Holmes for making a permanent stand for the witch and to Mrs. A. F. Downum for re-costuming the witch.

Musicianship Classification For Members Of Band Announced

The John A. Holmes High School Band has just released its first list of musicianship classification for this year. The classifications are based on the band member's performance ability, and are subject to revision each six weeks.

The clarinet section walked away with most of the top classifications, with two musicians first class, six second class and four third class.

One other section, saxophones, landed two top ratings, while the oboes, flutes, trombones and baritones had one each.

Four sections, cornets, French horns, basses and percussion, failed to receive a single top classification.

The classifications and the recipients were as follows: Musician first class, Jimmy Ashley (saxophones), Priscilla Bunch (oboes), Dick Hobowsky (clarinets), John Marshall (saxophones), Patsy Mooney (flutes), Mac Privott (trombones), Ronnie Sawyer (baritones) and Bud Skiles (clarinets).

Musician Second Class: Ellen Basnight (E-flat clarinet), Bill Bootwright (timpani), John Bunch (cornets), Gloria Crumney (clarinets), Judy Elliott (clarinets), Dianne Goodwin (bass clarinet), Billy Harrell (percussion), Karen Hollowell (French horns), Bob Powell (cornets), Anita Sexton (clarinets), Douglas Sexton (percussion), Carolyn Stallings (cornets), Peggy Williams (clarinets), Jerry Yarborough (French horns).

Musician Third Class: Gloria Byrum (saxophones), Judy Byrum (cornets), Marian Collins (saxophones), Vern Goodwin (French horns), Barbara Layton (bass clarinet), Tommy Leary (cornets), C. T. Mizelle (trombones), Tim Overman (cornets), Mary Anne Overton (bass clarinets), Ronnie Rountree (trombones), Billy Twiddy (saxophones), Carolyn Twiddy (alto clarinet), Linda Wheeler (clarinets).

Edenton Aces Face Crucial Test Friday Night In Plymouth

Winner Will Claim Championship of Albemarle Conference; Both Confident

Edenton's Aces and the Plymouth Panthers approach the final Albemarle Conference game of the season appropriately with fear and trembling when they lock horns on the Plymouth gridiron Friday night. The winner of this game will be conference champions and will, of course, qualify them to continue in the playoffs for the State Class AA Championship.

Plymouth, from the beginning of the season this year, was reported to be a power house. Their record is a little more impressive than the Aces, for they boast an undefeated and untied record thus far. On the other hand, the Aces have not lost a conference game, but have come up with two tie scores, one with Hertford and one with Ahoskie.

However, Plymouth has won most of their conference games by a margin of only a few points so that the Aces feel confident.

17 New Members Added During Pres-ent Drive; Workers Will Meet Today

The Chamber of Commerce annual membership campaign which began on October 27 has brought in 17 new members to date with many prospects still unreported. Jesse Harrell, general chairman of the campaign, said that $10,350 of the 1960 goal of $15,000 has been subscribed.

"We are confident that when all cards are turned in we will have the funds needed to carry on the excellent job the Chamber is doing and to expand activities in 1960," said Harrell. He added that "it will be necessary, however, for every worker to complete his calls and report to his captain immediately."

A report meeting of captains and co-chairmen will be held this (Thursday) evening at 5 o'clock at the Chamber office. Co-chairmen W. P. Jones, who is president of the organization, and John W. Graham, past-president, request all workers to have a final report at that time. There are 50 members and prospects unreported at press time.

Interior Of Court House To Be Painted

Attention was called to the County Commissioners Monday by G. H. Harding that the interior of the Court House is badly in need of a coat of paint. Mr. Harding pointed out that a great many people visit the Court House and that this number will be greatly increased with the 200th anniversary of the James Iredell House and the tri-centennial of the State of North Carolina in 1963.

The Commissioners agreed with Mr. Harding and will secure estimates to paint not only the court room, but the offices of the Clerk of Superior Court, Register of Deeds and the tax office.

Since completing his work at the seminary he has served in the Stanly Association as pastor of the First Baptist Church, New London, N. C., as Associational

Explorer Scouts Will Begin "Be Prepared For Accident" Drive Nov. 10; Sell First Aid Supplies

Starting Tuesday, November 10, the Explorer Scouts will conduct a house-to-house "Be Prepared for Accidents" campaign in Edenton.

Members of the group will visit every home in the community. They will present the homeowner with a first-aid chart showing approved procedures for dealing with various types of accidents, and will offer to assist the homeowner in checking his first-aid supplies to determine whether his home is adequately stocked for accident emergencies.

ed, members of the group will be able to offer a selection of first-aid kits so that the homeowner may choose the kit that best meets his needs. Kits designed for use inside or outside the home will be available.

The first-aid kits are supplied by Johnson & Johnson through Hollowell's Drug Store. Profits realized on the sale of kits will be used to meet the costs of a variety of activities.

Gene Ward, advisor, says, "We hope our campaign will show our entire community to the importance of being prepared to give accident injuries prompt first-aid."
