SCHOOL AND YOUR CHILD

By John Corey, Appalachian State Teachers College

Can Parents Be Trusted With Knowing Child's IQ?

Should parents know their children's IQ's?

"No," classifying as top secret weight. This spares bruising the the scores your child made on parents' ego.

And just who is Bill? A parent's mind stalls right in the middle of that intersection . . . From what background has Bill come? In what moral direction is he heading? Where did Ruth meet him? Where will he take her?

Jolting the family's peace of mind, this sudden collision between confidence in our daughter and uncertainty about someone's son.

Another jolt: If Bill's parents are the right sort of people, they're probably wondering about our Ruth!

Many families have fewer such anxieties because they are active in the life of a church. Their boys and girls meet in an atmosphere that calls forth our best. Fun, friendship and inspiration are blended in worthwhile youth activities.

And if love blooms . . . no awkward compromise of conviction such as besets some . . . but a common faith in God to enrich a couple's affection and strengthen their marriage.

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of ritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can rvive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his noral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible
