

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

of conduct of which they think the Lord would not approve.

These words of Jesus, which we are studying today, and by which he identifies service to one's fellow men as service to God, are profoundly significant for the Christian. In the first place, they give a depth to service which is lacking in purely humanitarian efforts. One may have all the satisfaction that comes from meeting the needs of a fellow human being, but there is more. For the Christian, service is the opportunity to do something for the Master whom he worships; therefore it adds glory to life. In the second place, Jesus' words present a solemn warning, because cruelties and neglect can be done to him, too.

The reference in the parable suggests direct contacts between individuals in a fairly simple society. In our increasingly complex and at the same time narrowing world, the "inasmuch" concept takes on ever widening implications. Growth in Christian concern means becoming increasingly aware of this concept in this widening context.

Today, for instance, serving the sick and imprisoned has far wider meaning than such an idea once had. What facilities do our communities provide for these human beings? What is the condition of the penal institutions in our country? How many deaths by traffic accidents could be prevented, thus eliminating much sorrow and suffering? What are we doing to serve the victims of all these tragedies?

If our answer is "nothing" will the Master say to us, in the final hours of judgment: "You did not to me?"

Let us pray for the broadening of our vision, more sensitive spirits, and an increase in our dedication to the service of mankind—in His name!

day School Lessons, copyrighted

Procedures Reduced
To Obtain Loans On
Farm Stored Grain

Procedures for obtaining a loan on farm-stored grain have been reduced making it simple for farmers to make requests.
All a producer needs to do is call or write the ASCS office, and make his request. After a grade sample is obtained, mailed to and received from the grading laboratory, the farmer is then notified when to come to the county office to sign applicable forms and receive the loan payment.

To be eligible for a corn loan the producer must be participating in the 1961 Feed Grain Program. Another rule is there must be adequate and suitable storage space on the farm.

Wm. Privott Attends
Conference On Courts

Gov. Terry Sanford told the Traffic Court Conference of Lower Court Solicitors Tuesday of last week, October 24, that "it's good politics to enforce traffic laws without regard to individuals involved."

Sanford said he was counting on solicitors to become one of the most important links in the State's highway safety efforts, and that the people of the state will support a rigid but fair enforcement aimed at saving lives.

Solicitors in attendance at the Conference in the Hall of the House in Raleigh included William S. Privott of Edenton.
