Local Students Get Honorable Mention

Top winners in the Northeastern District Science Fair held at East Carolina College Friday, March 23, have been announced by Dr. Frank Eller of the East Carolina Science Department, chairman of the event.

Almost 200 projects by junior and senior high school students in a 22-county area were on display during the day in the Wright auditorium on the campus. Interest in the fair was indicated by the large number of people who came to view the work of the young scientists.

Barbara Wallace and Frances Privott of John A. Hoimes High School in Edenton received honorable mention for junior biological science projects.
