

Sandwich Got Name From English Earl

How did the sandwich get its name?

Historical sources say that the word "sandwich" originated during the time of John Montagu, the fourth Earl of Sandwich, who was well known in England during the 18th century because of his fondness for gambling.

At a long gambling session, the Earl ordered a servant to bring him meat between two slices of bread so he could continue his gambling.

Many stories trace the origin of the sandwich back before the time of the British earl—as far back as to the pre-Christian era when certain priests are said to have spread wafers with honey and eaten them. In any case, sandwiches have been around a long time; and today they help satisfy the appetites of millions.

With back-to-school lunches to prepare now, there will be many sandwiches to prepare and the mother will probably be having sandwiches for lunch, too.

Turkey sandwiches are mighty versatile fare especially with turkeys reasonably priced. The mingled flavors of sandwich go-togethers highlight turkey in many delicious ways. Slice it, dice it, or chop it, but always use generous portions of tender roast turkey in every sandwich creation.

For school, you can mix deviled ham and mayonnaise and spread on the bread. Then add a slice of roast turkey.

Wagon wheel sandwiches are party-time favorites. To prepare, cut slices of bread into circles. Spread one side of each slice with butter or margarine. Add sliced roast turkey, cranberry sauce and lettuce to half of the buttered bread slices, and close with the remaining circles. Cut nippy cheese slices into circles and small strips. Arrange them on top of each circle sandwich to resemble the hub and spokes of wagon wheels.

Serve wagon wheel turkey sandwiches with western-style barbecued beans and plenty of cold delicious milk.

Winners In Second Fractional Bridge

The second fractional point bridge games sponsored by the Edenton Woman's Club were played Tuesday night at the Barker House. The three leading teams in the two divisions follow:

North-South
1—Mrs. James Wood and Mrs. Carlton Perry of Elizabeth City.
2—Dr. Richard Hardin and Joe Thorud.

3—Liles Gatling and Mrs. Mamie Rhea of Windsor.

East-West
1—Mrs. H. A. Campen and Mrs. William P. Jones.

Second and third honor was tied by Mrs. Bruce Jones and Mrs. Elton Forehand and Mrs. Claire Gatling and Mrs. Pauline Gilliam of Windsor.

It is best to love wisely, no doubt; but to love foolishly is better than not to be able to love at all.
