associates. He told what football has meant to him in way of travel, education and income. At the conclusion of his very delightful address he answered quite a few questions which came from the audience.

Another feature of the program was presentation of two trophies, one by radio station WCDJ which went to Tom Phillips for best sportsmanship. The other was for the most outstanding football player, which went to Harry Spruill. The WCDJ trophy was presented by Pat Flannagan and the other by Coach Jerry McGee. Young Spruill expressed his appreciation for the honor, and gave due credit to the Aces' linemen for much of his success on the gridiron. Coach McGee also paid high tribute to Assistant Coach Billy Hardison for development of the Aces.

Certificates were presented to the football players by Coach McGee and included the following:

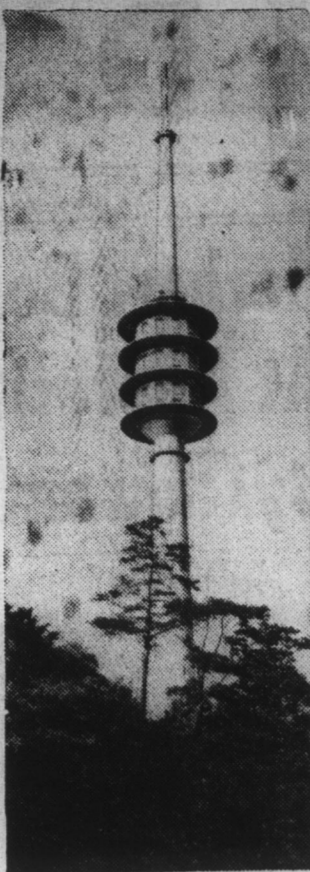

Wesley Cresson, Douglas Sexton, Billy Ervin, Jerry Townsend, Billy Twiddy, Mike Phelps, Harry Spruill, Jim Elliott, Hiram Mayo, Jr., Perry Byrum, Durrell Ambrose, Charles Swanner, David Holton, Phil Harrell, Douglas Twiddy, Charles Overton, Tom Phillips, Randy Copeland, Joe Harrell, Dwight Flannagan, H.
