J. Eyer, sanitarian supervisor. A series of clinics will be held for the vaccination of dogs against rabies or hydrophobia.

All a dog owner needs to do is to take his dog to one of the Wednesday afternoon clinics and have it vaccinated, he said. A small fee will be collected by the vaccinator. Continued on Page 2—Section 1

Fire Destroys Home Saturday Afternoon

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blount Lose All Belongings

Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Blount, Jr., had the misfortune to lose their home and all their personal belongings in a fire Saturday afternoon.

Their house, located in the St. John section of the county, was discovered to be burning when a boy passed while Mrs. Blount was at a neighbor's house to use the telephone. The fire occurred about 6 o'clock and the origin is not known.

The family is in destitute circumstances and an appeal has been made for help for clothing and furniture, all of which was consumed by the blaze.

Aside from the father and mother, the family consists of four children, a daughter 5½ years old and three sons, 4½, 3 and 1½ years old.

Anyone desiring to make any kind of a contribution to this unfortunate family can do so by contacting Henry Blount, Sr., West Albemarle Street Extended, Route 3, Box 344. Continued on Page 3, Section 1

55 People Enroll In Literacy Workshop In Elizabeth City

You are very fortunate to be able to read this article! Many adults in Chowan and surrounding counties cannot read their newspaper or religious literature or even instructions on a medicine bottle. With the idea in mind to help these adult non-readers, a literacy workshop was recently held in Elizabeth City at the Cann Memorial Presbyterian Church. The workshop was sponsored by the Chowan Baptist Association, Robert S. Harrell, superintendent of missions and the Albemarle Council on Migratory Labor, Dr. Harold White, executive secretary.

The workshop was conducted by Miss Mildred Blankenship, literacy field worker of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and Miss Kathryn Bullard, Woman's Missionary Society Director of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. Of the 52 people attending, 45 completed the course and were awarded certificates which qualifies them to teach non-readers to read and write. This group included representatives from churches of many denominations. There were also in attendance several public school teachers and officials as well as representatives of the Department of Public Health. The workshop was open to all races. Continued on Page 3, Section 1
