WE SUPPORT
L. RICHARDSON PREYER
FOR GOVERNOR

We announce our endorsement of L. RICHARDSON PREYER for the Democratic nomination for Governor and strongly recommend him to the voters of Chowan County.

First, Preyer is a distinguished North Carolinian educated in Law and Administration and has proven himself in both the Business World and in his own chosen profession of Law, having risen to the position of Superior Court Judge and then on to a Federal Judgeship.

He is an exemplary family man. He and Mrs. Preyer, the former Emily Harris of Greensboro, have five children. It is a closely-knit family in which parents and children share educational, recreational and cultural activities. He and his wife are both tireless civic workers, having served together and separately on dozens of charity drives, building programs and other community projects.

Yet Preyer finds time to serve as a teacher of the Men's Bible Class at the First Presbyterian Church in Greensboro.

We would have to rate as one of his chief assets, his wife, Emily. A Red Cross worker during the war in Australia and the Philippines, she is friendly, charming, intelligent and full of boundless energy and good cheer.

Preyer gave up his seat on the Federal bench because the tremendous outpouring of public support his his candidacy among his own people convinced him that he was wanted and because he wished to be of even greater service to his state.

Preyer has been a hard campaigner and gone into every part of North Carolina. He has spoken out clearly on the essential state issues. Here are some of them:

- 1.—He has given first priority where it belongs, to education. He would work toward the elimination of school textbook fees and for smaller classroom loads, higher teacher salaries, an expanded vocational education program for the great majority of North Carolina high school graduates who never go to college.
- 2.—Preyer has advocated a road bond issue of up to $300 million, to be repaid by a continuation of the one-cent gasoline tax. No new taxes would be involved.
- 3.—Preyer would use the state's resources to seed new sources of farm income by growing more foodstuffs, expanding the livestock program, and by giving increased emphasis to conservation and wildlife. He plans expanded markets and research to help the tobacco farmer.
- 4.—He favors an increase to $1.00 an hour in the state's minimum wage, now at 85 cents an hour.
- 5.—He supports the state's right-to-work law.
- 6.—He urges the establishment of an industrial extension division to help counties, cities and towns work toward an objective of 180,000 new jobs.
- 7.—He asks better mental health facilities at the local level, state level and more aid for mentally retarded children.
- 8.—Preyer supports the rural electric cooperatives and believes that they play an important part in the economy of the rural areas of North Carolina.

Despite accusations to the contrary, Preyer has shown that he is his own man, a person of independent judgment, high principles and intelligence, and good moral character. He will be the captive or no individual or no group.

We further like the way he has said the same thing to all audiences in all parts of the state without regard to local traditions or prejudices.

And so we commend him to the voters, enthusiastically and unhesitatingly, as the best man for the job.
