

Board Of Elections Sets Up Local Machinery For General Election Nov. 3

Changes Are Made In Four Polling Places For Chowan County Voters

Chowan County's Board of Elections has set up machinery for the general election which will be held Tuesday, November 3. This week the registrars, judges of election and polling places were announced by P. S. McMullan, Chairman of the Board. Mr. McMullan pointed out that a few changes have been made in the polling places, which should be remembered by voters in the Rocky Hook, Center Hill, Wardville and Yeopim Precincts.

Registrars will be at the various polling places three consecutive Saturdays, October 10, 17 and 24 for the purpose of registering voters for the election. It is again pointed out that to be eligible to cast a ballot a voter's name must be listed in the registration book of his or her precinct. To be listed only in the town's registration books will not allow any voter to cast a

Aces Win Fourth Straight By Defeating Williamston 25 To 0

Edenton's Aces hung up their fourth consecutive victory of the season Friday night on Hicks Field when they defeated the Williamston Green Wave 25-0. The score sort of belies the strong opposition put up by the visitors, who played on about even terms throughout the first quarter and until about midway of the second quarter when a bad pass from center set up the Aces' first touchdown. That appeared to be the turning point of the game and thereafter the Edenton touchdowns came a little easier.

Hiram Mayo, Jr., was the bright light in the victory, for he scored three of the four touchdowns and was the chief ground

Rules Are Tightened At Hospital In Regard To Visitors Seeing Patients

Receptionist Will Be On Duty In Corridor To Carry Out Visiting Rules

Due to the crowded condition at Chowan Hospital for the last few months, on account of the increased patient load, the board of trustees, the medical staff, and the hospital management have decided, for the benefit of patient care, that the hospital visiting hours must be complied with.

The only change in existing visiting hours is in the evening. The visiting hours have been changed from 6 to 8 o'clock to 7 to 8 o'clock.

There will be a receptionist on duty in the main corridor of the hospital to accept visitors, advise them of the condition of the patients, and carry out visiting rules. The number of visitors a given patient can have at one time will be determined by the patient's physician. This will be carried out by the hospital staff like any other treatment. The doctors on the staff have said it is a real problem to treat patients with visitors in the room or ward. They are perfectly aware of the families' feeling for the patient while in the hospital.
