

Annual Halloween Party Is Scheduled To Be Held Thursday Night, Oct. 29

Date Changed Due to Falling on Saturday Night and a Football Game Friday Night

Edenton's annual Halloween party at the playground, sponsored by the Edenton Woman's Club, will be held Thursday night, October 29, instead of Halloween night Saturday, October 31st.

As it was not deemed practical to hold the parade and party Saturday and Friday is football night, the club members voted to hold the party on Thursday night this year.

Preparations for the gala party are already under way by the Co-chairmen Mrs. Robert Ashley and Mrs. Tom Bass.

Assisting with the arrangements are Mrs. Stephen Long, hot dogs; Mrs. J. D. Barnhill, witches' brew; Mrs. G. A. Byrum, apple stand; Mrs. Bruce Jones, peanuts; Mrs. Hiram Weeks, candy and gum; Mrs. Aubrey Hardison, fish pond; Mrs. Charlie Small, talking witch; Mrs. Robert Bunch, Jr., movies; Mrs. Elton Forehand, Jr., hayride; Mrs. Cecil Fry, popcorn; Mrs. Thomas Ward, fortune telling; Mrs. Alton Elmore, prizes; Mrs. J. M. Thorud, general arrangements; Mrs. Chester Stevens, parade, and publicity, Mrs. J. P. Ricks, Jr.

The party is made possible by the generous contributions of local merchants.

Saturday Will Be Tag Day For Band

Proceeds Will Go Toward Purchasing New Uniforms

On Saturday, October 17, the band of John A. Holmes High School will hold its annual Tag Day. The proceeds of this drive will go toward the purchase of new uniforms, tentatively scheduled for next year.

The band relies quite heavily on Tag Day, which has been very successful in the past, and it is hoped that this year will prove no exception. Remember: The band represents the town and people of Edenton; they must have the necessary funds to represent it well.

District Bar Association Offers Constitutional Amendment To Constitution Of United States

The annual meeting of the First Judicial District Bar Association was held Friday morning at the Chowan County Court House. President Phillip P. Godwin of Gates County presided. Edwin Gill, State Treasurer, presented the keynote speech. Mr. Gill spoke on the unbalance of the three branches of the federal government. He quoted from Judge Learned Hand and emphasized that the assertion of power by any form or branch of government results from the people allowing such power to exist and their submission to the control. Mr. Gill was particularly critical of the present United States Supreme Court and several of its recent decisions.

Watershed Meeting Scheduled Oct. 20

Purpose to Determine Interest In Organiz- ing Project

Due to a conflict in schedule of some of those planning to attend the Bear Swamp Watershed meeting last Tuesday night, the meeting has been re-scheduled for Tuesday night, October 20 at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be held in the Center Hill Community Building at Tyner.

Landowners in the Bear Swamp watershed will hold the meeting to determine the interest in organizing a watershed project. Improvements would be made under the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act.

All landowners in the watershed and other interested persons are urged to attend. A representative of the Soil Conservation Service will explain the program and then the people can decide what course of action they would like to take. This is the program that improvements were made in the Burnt Mill Creek and Pollock Swamp Watersheds.

Assisting in the contest will be Coach Jerry McGee and some members of the Edenton Aces. Mr. Hopkins reports that this year's registration is the largest in the four years the contest has been sponsored by the Albemarle Motor Company, local Ford dealer. The Ford Motor Company sponsors this nationwide contest among boys eight years through 13. Prizes this year are better than in former years, says Mr. Hopkins, and include, for top

Hiram Mayo Points Out Importance Of School Bond Issue

Says Chowan County Will Be Faced With Big Expense If Bond Issue Is Defeated

Hiram J. Mayo, chairman in Chowan County for the $100 million school bond issue comments emphatically on the need for 21 classrooms for the local schools. This county will receive $282,225.91 from the $100 million bond issue to be voted on November 3rd. Mr. Mayo stated that the urgent needs of the schools depend on the success of this bond issue.

Senator David Clark, state chairman of the Steering Committee, emphasized the statewide needs. He pointed out that in the event that the bond issue is not approved that each county will, through necessity, have to find ways and means to build their much needed classrooms.

Work Is Started On Edenton Directory

Harry O. Stone, editor of Wing Publications of Columbia, S. C., began work Wednesday on gathering information for an Edenton directory for 1965.

Mr. Stone is employing local people to help in taking a census and gathering other information which will be included in the directory. A house to house canvass will be made.

Mr. Stone's office is in the Hotel Joseph Hewes, from where he will direct the work of gathering the necessary information.

Town Councilmen Considering New Fire Station With Cost Far Beyond What Was Anticipated

Meeting Monday night instead of Tuesday night, due to the Chamber of Commerce annual banquet Tuesday night, Town Council disposed of a full agenda and Councilmen were dismissed about 11 o'clock.

A goodly amount of time was devoted to consideration of a new fire station. An architect's drawing and floor plan prepared by Jack Pruden showed a beautiful and commodious type building of colonial design. What caused considerable concern, however, was the fact that the cost of the building would approximate $100,000 which is far

Edenton Aces Throw Big Scare In Elizabeth City Yellow Jacket Camp By Playing To 14-14 Tie

Outweighed and outplayed in the first half, Edenton's Aces came from behind 14-0 at the end of the first half Friday night in Elizabeth City to wind up with a 14-14 tie score and threw a terrible scare in the Yellow Jackets' camp in the few remaining seconds of the game.

The Yellow Jackets scored a touchdown and extra point in the first eight plays after receiving the ball at the start of the game. The hard-hitting Jacket ball carriers tore through the Edenton line on almost every play and from the Aces' 21-yard line Tommy Kidd connected with a pass to Gary Hess, who circled end to score. Jerry Warren's kick was good for extra point.

The Aces had tough sledding in the second quarter also, but managed to hold back the charging Yellow Jackets until near the end of the half, when they

Over 70,000 Residents In Nine Counties Are Urged to Take Sabin Oral Polio Vaccine On November 15

Plans for a massive, saturation campaign to win the battle over polio in the nine counties making up the First District Medical Society in northeastern North Carolina, were announced early this week.

Dr. T. P. Brinn of Hertford, chairman of the First District Medical Society's Stop Polio Committee, said more than 70,000 residents of the nine counties will be expected to receive Sabin oral polio vaccine in the campaign which will open on Sunday, November 15, in public clinics conducted over the area.

Counties participating in the Stop Polio campaign will be Pasquotank, Camden, Currituck, Dare, Chowan, Perquimans, Gates, Hertford, and Bertie.

The vaccine, a colorless, tasteless liquid, will be administered in three separate doses, all on Sunday, starting on November 15. The vaccine is given by dropping several droplets of the vaccine on sugar cubes which the person receiving the vaccine then eats. No injection is required and health officials and recovered an Edenton fumble on the Aces' 46. Chalking up three successive first downs, the Jackets moved to the Aces' 10-yard line, from where Bob Burgess scooted around left end to score and Warren's kick for extra point was again good. On the last play of the half the Jackets intercepted a pass on their 15-yard line.

The second half was a different ball game altogether, with the Aces fired up and dominating the play. After the ball exchanged hands two times, Jim Elliott fell on a Jacket fumble on the Jackets' 2-yard line, from where Hiram Mayo crashed through the line for the Aces' first score. David Holton could not spot a receiver, so he raced around end for the extra point.

The Aces, fired up by scoring and the Jackets apparently very much distressed over the Edenton end of the half, when they
