

PEANUT KING.—Lewis Evans, left, winner of the 1964 Chowan 4-H Peanut Contest, pours a few goobers for Joe Sugg, executive secretary of the N. C. Peanut Growers Association, following last week's meeting of Edenton Rotary Club. C. W. Overman, farm agent, appears pleased with what is going on. Evans is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Evans of Edenton.

percentage increase than consumption is going up. The country has seen a 45 per cent increase in production, Sugg pointed out, while consumption is up 14 per cent for the same period.

peanut industry. He added that yield potential is good as is the increased use of the crop.

He said the peanut subsidy is important to the farmers and should be maintained. "Peanuts account for only a small percentage of the farm subsidies," he noted.

Then the speaker admitted that al is not "rosy" in the industry. He said there would always be problems and they must be tackled one at a time. The problem that must be dealt with almost daily is that of quality. "We should not let anyone put an inferior product on the market," Sugg said.

Ten young farmers entered the 4-H contest and their average yield was 3,338 pounds per acre, nearly twice the average yield of 17 who entered the first contest in 1950. The 1964 average was the highest ever.

In addition to the three winners, those entering the contest and their actual yield per acre included: Jimmy Evans, 3,854; Bill Monds, 3,300; Glenn Bunch, Jr., 3,100; Jerry Castellioe, 3,000; Tommy Castellioe, 2,700; Tommy Forehand, 2,568; and Garry Lowe, 3,050.

Charlie Overman, farm agent, was in charge of the program and introduced Sugg. Naturally, peanuts were on the menu and they were processed in Edenton by Jimbo Jumbo's.

Nonetheless, Sugg said he is cheerful at the outlook for the
