

Edenton Class Of 1940

Enjoys First Reunion

Twenty members of the class of 1940 of Edenton High School observed the 25th anniversary of their graduating class at the Edenton Restaurant Saturday evening, May 8th. Along with five former teachers and husbands and wives of class members, there were 42 present.

Joe Rowlette, Jr., of Washington, president of the class the senior year, presided and recognized the teachers who were instructing in the high school in 1940.

Those teachers attending were Miss Paulina Hassell, senior sponsor, Mrs. Margaret Brown Jenkins, Mrs. David Holton, widow of Coach Dave Holton, all of Edenton; Mrs. Virgie Speight Gilchrist of Washington, Ralph Britt of Severn and Harvey J. Chaston of Washington, D. C. Three other teachers, Mrs. Luteile Clark Cornater of Advance, Miss Josephine Grant of Rocky Mount and Thompson Greenwood of Raleigh sent messages to the class.

President Rowlette had each member introduce their husband or wife and tell how many children or grandchildren they now have. One member, Sara Lane Townsend has 10 children. Messages were read from 20 other members of the class. Only eight were not heard from.

The Class History, Last Will and Testament and Glass Prophecy were read but no one would admit to having written the prophecy. Not one thing had been predicted correctly. It was brought to the attention of those present that although the members liked each other very much there had not been a single marriage within the class.

So much fun was had in talking over old times and laughing at past mistakes, the class decided to have another reunion in 1970.

Those attending were Emma Alexander Twiddy, Sara Edith Oliver Bishop, Nelva Jordan Brabble, Elizabeth Moran Brotton, Virginia Moore Byrum, Anne Chappell Edmundson, Evelyn Perry Griffin, Sophie Mills Mitchell, Essie Coffield Norwood, Helen Swanner Perry, Doris Jean Leary Weeks, Sara Lane Townsend, Corinne Forehand Thorud, Jimmy Hassell, Amnon Smithson, Erwin Griffin, Dan Reaves, Carroll Byrum, Thurman Harrell and Joe Rowlette.

Other members of the class not present included Beatrice Alexander Harrell, R. P. Badham, Lloyd Burton, Gene Bunch Cullipher, Gray Byrum, J. M. Boyce, Gussie Cox Jacocks, Laura Dixon, Marguerite Elliott, Pattie Garrett Dail, Emily Howard Sikes, Meredith Jones, Vance Overton, Marie Langsdale Kurbaski, Pauline Moore Sutton, Mary Privott Baird, Rober Rawls, Catherine Reaves, Robert Satterfield, Murray Small, Sadie Smith Doane, Carrol Stewart, Margaret Upton, Ernest J. Ward, Raymond Ward, Emmett Wiggins and Leslie Yates Young. The class presented Miss Hassell a small gift in appreciation of her love and guidance through the years.

James Boswell Is Recognized

Pvt. James Boswell, stationed in Company D, 11th Battalion, Third Training Brigade, Ft. Jackson, S. C., has been selected Outstanding Sentry of the brigade. His selection was on April 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Boswell, parents of the soldier, received a letter from Col. Truman A. Hopkins in which he informed them that the selection was based on "military bearing, neat appearance, leadership, knowledge of basic military subjects, high moral character and attention to duty."

Jaycees Planning Insecticide Sale

Edenton Jaycees will sponsor an insecticide sale through the town Friday. Jaycees will begin their door-to-door sale at 6:30 P. M.

Paul Twiddy is chairman of this event and proceeds will go to promote the club's community development project.
