Blue Ribbon Won By Clubs

Chowan County received a blue ribbon on its publicity book at Homemakers Week held at N. C. State University, Raleigh, June 15-18.

Attending Homemakers Week from Chowan County were Mrs. M. T. Barrington, Mrs. B. P. Monds, Mrs. Glenn Langley, Mrs. R. E. Leary, Mrs. J. F. Phillips, and Miss Harriet Leary, accompanied by Miss Pauline Calloway, home economics agent.

The Home Demonstration Club members who attended were very much impressed with the classes in which they enrolled, as well as the information they gained from these classes. Mrs. Barrington was enrolled in "Food and the Future," a look into the future at how nutrition research and food science work together to make available the kinds and amounts of food you will be eating in the space age.

Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Leary, Mrs. Monds, Mrs. Langley, and Miss Leary chose "The House and Its Interior," a look at North Carolina houses which included architectural design, space, family needs, and present trends in home building; how to decorate a house to express both formal and casual atmosphere. Furnishings were accented with North Carolina quality crafts.

Miss Calloway chose "The Health of the Total Woman"—her responsibility to herself, to her family, to her community, and her responsibility to future generations.

Other classes which were taught during Homemakers Week were "The Frozen Food Picture," "Guiding the Beginning Marriage," "Your Guide to Better Dress," "Legal Affairs of the Family," "Effective Speaking and Listening," "Know Your Car," and "Taking Care of Your Plants."

SUMMER WELCOME—Welcome summer to your home by serving flavorful, refreshing yet filling and nutritious salads. This Egg Salad Mold, a first cousin to popular potato salad, fills the bill. Pass assorted relishes and your favorite bread.

Creative Cooking

The Herald Kitchen

Hot weather meals call for light refreshing menus.

But for the sake of the man of the house they must be nourishing and filling, too. So, welcome summer, the salad season, to your home by serving flavorful supper salads the whole family will enjoy.

One of these we can suggest is a high-protein Egg Salad Mold. It is a first cousin to ever-popular potato salad and is sparked with canned diagonal-cut green beans. The superbly simple dressing is a blend of mellow cream cheese and zippy bottled French dressing. Unmold on crisp salad greens and serve it along with cold cuts, assorted relishes and freshly sliced breads.

Egg Salad Mold
1 doz. hard-cooked eggs, chopped.

1 can (16 oz.) diagonal-cut green beans, drained.
6 slices crisp bacon, crumbled.

½ cup chopped celery.
½ cup chopped onion.
½ cup French dressing.
½ teaspoon salt.
2 pks. (3 ozs.) cream cheese, softened.
Dash pepper.

Combine eggs, drained canned beans, bacon, celery and onion, tossing lightly to mix. Blend dressing and seasonings into cream cheese. Combine with egg mixture. Pack into one and one-half quart mold. Chill thoroughly. Unmold or serving platter and garnish with salad greens. Makes six servings.

Another salad that is sure to be a family treat and is easy to prepare is Avant Garde Avocados.

Rich, smooth avocados are hollowed out and filled with a delightful combination of crab meat, eggs, olives and cashews. A tangy dressing of American blue cheese and sour cream crowns the salad supper. Remember to sprinkle the avocado and shell with lemon juice to prevent discoloration of the fruit.

Avant Garde Avocados
1 can crab meat, flaked and boned.
1 can water chestnuts, sliced.
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped.

¼ cup chopped ripe olives.
¼ cup cashews.
2 ripe avocados.
Lemon juice.

Cut avocados in half and remove seeds. Scoop out meat from avocados, dice it and sprinkle the meat and the shells with lemon juice. Mix the chopped avocados with the rest of the ingredients. Pile high into avocado shells. Top with blue cheese dressing. Serves four.

Blue Cheese Dressing
1 cup dairy sour cream.
Cup crumbled blue cheese.
Dash Worcestershire sauce.
Dash of cayenne.
Pinch of sugar.
Pineapple-grapefruit juice.

Blend sour cream with one-fourth cup blue cheese. Beat until smooth. Add seasoning and enough juice to thin the dressing. Stir in remaining blue cheese. Refrigerate. Serve on top of avocado salads. Makes one and one-fourth cups.

Zippy V-8, with its eight vegetables flavor, lends itself ideally to sophisticated party garb. Included in every group are usually a number of guests who prefer non-alcoholic cocktails. For your next party make up a batch of Minted V-8 Shrubs by freezing limeaccented V-8 and piling it high in glasses. Add the final filling of a perky mint sprig and short straw to each glass. Accompany the frosty beverages with an assortment of crispy crackers.

Minted V-8 Shrubs
1 can (46 oz.) V-8.
2 tablespoons lime juice.
Mint leaves.

In shallow baking dish combine V-8 and lime juice. Freeze to mushy consistency; stir two or three times. Just before serving, stir and pile into glasses. Garnish with mint. Serve with straws. Makes 12 servings.

Don't overlook this V-8 Tropicale as a prelude to a curry dinner.

V-8 Tropicale
1 can (12 oz.) V-8.
Generous dash ginger.
¼ cup orange-pineapple juice.

3 lemon slices.
6 mandarin orange segments.

In saucepan, heat V-8 and ginger; add juice. Chill. Garnish with lemon and orange. Makes three servings.

After a real he-man dinner a light, refreshing dessert is in order. If you're dieting, leave off the whipped cream but serve, soon, Lime Delight, piled high in those flaky frozen patty shells. This recipe was developed by the Pepperidge Farm people who, of course, developed the patty shells. At our house we search for ways to use these wonderful patty shells. Creamed chicken, turkey and ham, go into them and, of course, seafood Newburg has progressed from toast points right into patty shells. Now, we urge you to try them for dessert shells.

Lime Delight
1 pkg. frozen patty shells.
1 envelope unflavored gelatin.

½ cup cold water.
3 eggs, separated.
1/3 cup sugar.
1/3 cup lime juice.
