If you get to feeling you'd like a retreat
Take a boat ride up Queen Anne's Creek—
The quiet beauty and solitude
Will put you in a better mood.
And who knows as you drift along
The fish might bite and then? Nothing seems wrong

We expect to visit many places these coming weeks, but, I'll bet there won't be anything any nicer or more beautiful than our usual boat ride up Queen Anne's Creek. Of course, we go expecting to catch fish, but it's a good thing that we can appreciate the beautiful scenery, as the fish apparently have been on vacation.

If you want to read an entertaining book, get the best seller, "Up the Down Staircase" by Bel Kaufman. It's a wise and witty book, somewhat poignant. Anyone having ever taught school, in fact, most of us who ever went to school, will recognize many incidents told by the author. And it's nice to know that our Miss Robertson of the local library can get these "best sellers."

It's cooler now and time to think about winter time cooking, which may be more fattening than summertime food, but the change is good and food delicious. I'm thinking right now about turnips cooked with either pork or beef and a few potatoes, or that ever delicious sauerkraut with pork and mashed potatoes. And hot rolls, apple dumplings and pumpkin pies. Some people seem to live to eat and I suppose I'm one of them.

It's wonderful that we have many interested parents in our community who are interested in the young people and seem to understand and "get along well" with them. This past weekend a group of young people from the MYF (Methodist Youth Fellowship), under the direction of Rev. E. C. Shoaf and chaperoned by Mrs. Howard Ange, spent their fall retreat at the Jesse Harrell cottage at Nags Head. Preparations and plans were made for their fall and winter programs. The MYF counselor and several members of the MYF from the Kitty Hawk Methodist Church joined the local group Sunday afternoon to help with and to receive ideas for their own group. It was beautiful weather at the beach this weekend and although the group accomplished quite a lot of work they took time out for recreation and enjoyed dinner at the Carolinian Hotel. These are times which these young people will long remember and will no doubt be largely responsible in character building.

Members of the local Masonic Lodge took their wives out to dinner Thursday night in grand style. The ladies of the Rocky Hock community cooked and served the meal, which in itself tells the tale of delicious food. It's so hard to remember your weight when confronted with country ham, corn, lima beans, sweet potatoes, salad, hot rolls, homemade cake and coffee. And what a wonderful blessing to be healthy enough to enjoy these things!

Here's a quickie dessert: Topsy-Turvy Rolls—Combine one can applesauce, 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, 2 tablespoons orange juice, 1/2 cup each butter and brown sugar. Heat and spread in buttered baking pan. Press 12 brown and serve rolls firmly into fruit mixture. Bake 15 minutes in 450 degree oven. Serve warm.

Readings Slated For Two Plays

Readings will be held Wednesday and Thursday by Edenton Little Theater for two one-act plays scheduled to be presented November 18 and 20.

Elaine Williams will direct "The Browning Version" and tryouts for the two female and five male parts will be held both nights at the Parish House of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

"End of the Beginning" will be directed by West Byrum, Jr. He will have readings for the one female and two male parts on Thursday night.

Readings each night will begin at 7:30 P. M.

Little Theater officials are hopeful that a number of local people will turn out to read for the 10 parts which are available.

These two one-act plays have been planned as the organizations' fall production.
