By C. W. OVERMAN, Chowan County Agent

Notices of Meetings: Chowan County Board of Agriculture will meet Friday of this week in the ballroom of Joseph Hewes Hotel at 9:30 A. M.

The annual Chowan County cotton production meeting is scheduled to be held at the Chowan Community building on Monday afternoon, February 21, at 2 o'clock.

The annual Chowan County peanut production meeting is scheduled to be held at the Chowan Community building on Tuesday afternoon, February 22 at 2 o'clock.

Continuation of the 1965 Annual Narrative Report: Under provisions of the Office of Economic Opportunity one Head Start center was established in Edenton during the summer for an eight-week period. The program was conducted through the Economic Improvement Council of the Albemarle Area Development Association with offices located in Elizabeth City. The proposal and plans for the program were formulated and conducted by the local Community Action Committee.

One hundred eleven children between the ages of five and six years were enrolled in the program. The program objectives were to help the pre-school age group to develop social adjustments, physical and mental development, establish good health habits, develop an appreciation for a better cultural environment and to stimulate a desire for better living through the utilization of educational opportunities and facilities. The cost of conducting the program at the Edenton center amounted to $13,753.65. Of

Edward J. Welch Is Given Term

Edward Junior Welch, 25-year-old Negro, 218 East Gale Street, was convicted Tuesday in Chowan County Recorder's Court of third offense of driving without a license.

Judge William S. Privott found that Welch had violated the terms of a suspended sentence and invoked a 30-day term.

On the new count, Welch was given eight months, suspended upon payment of $100 fine and court costs. Judge Privott said Welch could be released to his employer each working day while serving the active sentence.

In a companion case, Sara Gilliam Welch was convicted of allowing an unauthorized person to drive. She is given 60 days, suspended upon payment of $35 fine and costs.

Augustus D. Bass was convicted of improper registration and no operator's license. On the first count he was given 30 days, suspended upon payment of $5 fine and costs. The second count brought him an additional 60-day term, suspended upon payment of $35 fine and cost.

Willie W. Shannonhouse was convicted of shoplifting. He was given 30 days, suspended upon payment of $1 fine and costs.

In a case where William Bond was charged with assault on a female, he has prayer for judgment continued for two years upon payment of court costs. In another case, Bond was charged with non support of his child. Judge Privott gave him four months, suspended upon payment of $3.50 per week for support of the child.

Willie B. Twine was charged with possessing tax paid liquor, possessing it for the purpose of sale, and transporting the booze.

Judge Privott found the defendant not guilty of the first two counts, but sentenced her to 90 days, suspended upon payment of $50 fine and costs, in the third count. She had in her possession 13 pints of tax paid liquor.

Waivers entered were: Alton M. Winslow, Charles D. Smith, Clara W. Perry, Henry O. Roundtree and David Dodson.

Solicitor Thomas Cheers, Jr., prosecuted the docket.

Local Banker Taking Course

William H. Easterling, assistant vice president of the Peoples Bank & Trust Company, will attend the National Instalment Credit School to be held February 13 through 25 at the Center for Continuing Education, University of Chicago.

Easterling is one of approximately 190 bankers who will attend the two-week session of the school, which is co-sponsored by the University of Chicago and the American Bankers Association. The student body represents 41 states, the District of Columbia and Mexico.

The school's aim is to aid banks in educating their employes on the technical aspects of installment credit. The faculty is made up of educators, bankers and staff members of the ABA. Examinations will be given all students and diplomas will be awarded those successfully completing the course.

Elementary School Lunch Room Menu

Menus at the Edenton Elementary School lunch room for the week of February 1-19 are:

Monday: Bologna, school baked rolls, grits, chofolate pudding, candied yams, milk, butter.

Tuesday: Beef stew with onions, carrots, potatoes and gravy, green beans, biscuits, pineapple, milk, butter.

Wednesday: Beef vegetable soup, milk, crackers, chocolate block cake, toasted cheese sandwiches.

Thursday: Meat loaf, black-eyed peas, steamed rice, biscuits, gravy, school baked cookies, milk, butter.

Friday: Fish sticks, corn, cole slaw, corn bread, apple pie, milk, butter.

Saturday: Weiners, school baked rolls, baked beans, prunes, carrot and cabbage salad, milk, butter.

from federal funds. The balance of $3,053.65 was contributed in services by local lay leaders and professional leaders that made up the in-kind matching funds.

The program was considered to have been very effective in giving pre-school youth, particularly children from low income families, an opportunity to develop to their fullest potential upon entering public school.

Fine Arts and Crafts: The objectives were to develop a greater appreciation and skills in arts and crafts. Chowan people participated in the choral productions and Little Theater productions in the spring and fall and the Craftsman's Fair. With strong interest and concerted effort an area craftsman specialist position was accomplished and Miss Edna Bishop was secured.

Industry: Some additional industry located and others expanded in the area, providing more jobs for people. Your extension chairman serves on the Manpower Development Training Committee and through MDT you have a secretarial school and a mechanics training center here.

Travel and Recreation: The efforts of this committee are directed toward improved highways and transportation, and developing our recreational potentials. The historical tour of Edenton and Countryside in the spring brought lots of visitors to Chowan County. Arrowhead Beach and Cane Colony have improved their facilities which are being supported and used by our people in Chowan and other counties.
