A LIFT FOR TODAY

I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.—Psalm 122:1.

Worship in the house of God, in an atmosphere saturated with God's love, with his followers in unity with the Divine Spirit—this is essential to spiritual growth.

We thank Thee, our Father, for our churches. May we enter them with love in our hearts, assurance of blessings, and a resolve to bring others to know Thee.

No Dictionary

Immediately following reports that Soviet-built Mig's had attacked some of our own planes over North Vietnam, some tough-sounding statements were issued by Secretary of State Dean Rusk saying that enemy planes attacking ours would be allowed "no sanctuary" from pursuit and counterattack even if they flew in retreat across the border into Red China or perchance, might be based there. Domestic friends of our enemies raised a big howl about that, and quickly received assurances from Mr. Rusk's Department that none of our naughty and perhaps quick-tempered airmen would be allowed on their own, or by order of those generals or admirals who "command" our forces in Vietnam, to pursue those fun-loving Mig pilots into Red China and try to shoot them down. No sir, it's all up to commander-in-chief Lyndon Johnson (on the advice, of course, of those infallible civilian advisors in the Pentagon and State Department) to decide if and when one of our pilots might actually be allowed to pursue his attackers if they cross that line into Red China.

This isn't the first time Mr. Rusk has made headlines with a "no sanctuary" statement. Only a few months ago he was quoted as saying there would be no sanctuary for the enemy "anywhere", which was widely interpreted to mean our air forces would strike into Cambodia or any other border regions if it became evident that supplies and troops were being harbored there to support the Viet Cong. Yet all along, a large area around and between Hanoi and the port city of Haiphong has remained immune from attack by our fighting men. This despite the fact that the State Department's "White Paper" on Vietnam issued last year specifically states that the "campaign of terror and armed attack" in South Vietnam is "inspired, directed, supplied and controlled by the Communist regime in Hanoi."

Perhaps Mr. Rusk and possibly those who accept without question his occasion rough-and-tough-sounding statements are in need of a dictionary so they can learn the meaning of the words he uses. Our copy of same tells us that, insofar as it would apply in this instance, sanctuary means "a place of refuge, asylum; hence, immunity." And that, quite obviously, is what the enemy still has in many instances, as far as our men who must actually face them in combat are concerned.

Farm Safety Week

National Farm Safety Week co-sponsored by the National Safety Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be observed July 24-30 this year, by Presidential proclamation. "Safety is Victory Over Accidents" will be the theme of the Week, and its purpose will be to put a new awareness of safety procedures in the minds of the millions of people on American farms. Accidents kill more than 8,000 farm residents each year and injure an additional 700,000.

This year, emphasis will be on tractor safety and promotion of the SMV emblem — Slow-Moving Vehicle. It is a triangular emblem, highly visible within 500 feet, day or night, and is intended to be used on equipment traveling 25 miles per hour or less. Every operator of farm equipment should contact his county agent, or the Farm Department of the National Safety Council, 425 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611 to secure information on where to buy his SMV emblem. Practicing safety during National Farm Safety Week can create lifesaving habits throughout the year.

Heard & Seen "By Buff"

If my memory serves me right, I cannot recall in the 43 years I've been in Edenton any longer spell of such extremely hot weather as we've had now for a few weeks and little signs of any let-up as this is written. Nor can I remember any summer that we've had as many vicious yellow flies to torment us. But somebody was telling me that the yellow flies will leave after the first rain in August. Then another said they will leave after the last rain in August. However, if it is the first or last rain in August, the yellow flies surely have had their day. Of course, there's some sort of concoctions on the market which are supposed to keep 'em off a person. But sure as snuff, I'm just about convinced that the stuff stirs 'em up and makes them mad so that their bites are more frequent and more severe. Anyway, it will be a happy day when the yellow flies erminate their visit.

A very welcome visitor to The Herald office Tuesday was six-year-old Sirius Amanda Bunch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bunch, Jr., of the Rocky Lock section. Sirius brought me two ugar baby melons and a cantaloupe. They came from an acre of land which her daddy reserves every year for the little girl and gives her all of the money received from what is raised on the acre. I asked her what she was going to do with the money and she said she was putting it in a bank so that she will have enough to go to college after she graduates from high school. We've already eaten the cantaloupe and it was just as sweet as the little girl who wanted me to taste what has come from her acre of land. And here's hoping that when the time comes for her to go to college, she will have enough to foot the bill. There's all too few youngsters who think that far ahead to get an education, but rather most of 'em depend on Pop to "please remit."

Mrs. Ida Mae Roberson has been all set up for some time in expectation of a few weeks visit of her four grandchildren, who live with relatives in Charleston, S. C. The quartet arrived Saturday and it was a real homecoming in the house adjoining my backyard. However, the joy suddenly came to an end when Neighbor Roberson suddenly became ill and was taken Monday to Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill for observation due to a heart condition. In her absence, the youngsters are staying with friends in Edenton. Another grandchild, Miss Ida Smyer, who now lives and works in New York, arrived Sunday night despite the handicap in air travel. She and the four Garwood children went to Chapel Hill Wednesday to see their grandmother, and though no word has been received since Mrs. Roberson entered the hospital, here's hoping she will soon be back home so we can chat and joke with her "over the back fence."

Dwight Flanagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Flanagan, has hung up an enviable record with the Ahoskie American Legion baseball team. Dwight wound up the season with a healthy batting average of .360, one of the best in the league, which also included teams from Raleigh, Rocky Mount and Fuquay-Varina. Dwight will enroll at East Carolina College on a football scholarship, and here's hoping we'll be hearing more about his athletic prowess.

It's vacation time at The Herald office, so that each week lately one of the crew has been missing and causes the others to do a bit of extra work. This week Wilborne Harrell is "loafing" at his home. Last week William Reeves and his family spent a week in New York, but William says he spent about half the time trying to find the Brooklyn Bridge and never did find it. He said he saw a number of bridges, but he didn't know which was the Brooklyn Bridge. Well, maybe somebody did finally sell the thing. Next week yours truly is scheduled to spend the week at the beach, so here's hoping the mosquitoes and storms are also on vacation.

The scythe of time is continually cutting the brittle thread of life and last week life was snuffed from my friend Beanie White. Though very forgetful about many things, I can easily remember coming to Edenton back in 1923 and one of the first friends I made was Beanie, who was working at the old cotton oil mill. That was back in the days when it was not so very easy to make friends in Ednton, but since then and through the years Beanie and I were very friendly. It isn't very hard, either, to remember when Beanie and I were sort of "official cake testers" when Miss Rebecca Colwell was home agent and frequently held cake baking contests among her clubs in the county. He was a very friendly sort of a fellow and the kind of friend one regrets very much to lose. My sympathy is extended to his family. And such sudden demise from the scene makes one wonder who will be next.

Free Medicine Given 92

Persons in Chowan County received $1,248.54 in free medicine in June. There were 92 such certifications. Mrs. J. H. McMullan, welfare director, said payment for the medicine came from joint (state and federal) funds. The director's report to Chowan County Commissioners also showed 11 cases hospitalized in the county during the month. Payment from joint funds amounted to $1,907.34. Three persons were hospitalized outside the county at a cost of $531.91. This, too, came from joint funds. There were 92 certifications for food stamps with 83 cases being active. These persons paid $2,632 in cash and received stamps valued at $5,074. The welfare department had 75 service cases. There were a total of 463 cases handled in the department during the month including those receiving financial assistance and/or service. Mrs. McMullan reported 117 persons receiving old age assistance at a cost of $5,742. The average grant was $49.07 with 52 certified for medical services only. Aid to dependent children amounted to $3,878. There were 48 receiving this assistance with the average being $12.35. Four were certified to receive only medical service. There were 57 cases in the aid to the permanently and totally disabled program and they shared in $2,908, or an average grant of $51.01. Twelve of these were certified for medical services only. Seven aid to the blind cases received $246.
