SEABROOK BLANCHING CORPORATION—The peanut is an important crop in the local agricultural economy and Seabrook Blanching Corporation plays a similar role in the community. Under the direction of J. W. Gardner, Seabrook has been a pioneer in the process of blanching peanuts. Too, Seabrook is the only commercial firm currently pressing peanuts, something revolutionary in the peanut industry. The company has recently completed another phase of an expansion program which includes a spacious warehouse on the south end of the handsome structure.
