By CHARLOTTE NIXON

An assembly was held in the auditorium last Friday at Chowan during the third period. Charlotte Nixon, a senior, gave the devotion. Wayne Long, president of the senior class, then presented Kenneth Stalls, principal, as the speaker for the program.

Mr. Stalls talked to the students concerning grades, Beta Club, etc. He then announced that the purpose of the assembly was to inform the students about the reaccreditation the school is now undergoing and the importance of being reaccredited.

After the assembly was dismissed, the seniors remained in the auditorium. Mr. Stalls went over and explained the events the seniors would be attending before the end of the school year.

Starting at 7 P. M. Friday night, Chowan High's last conference basketball games were played for the 1967-68 school year. Both games were lost but the loss was soon pushed back in people's minds as the 1967-68 homecoming court was presented. Peggy Bass, Homecoming Queen of '68, was crowned by Ruth Ann

Bass, her sister, Homecoming Queen of 1967.

A dance was held after the crowning of the queen. "The Sounds Unlimited" furnished the music. Refreshments were served by the mothers of the seniors. It is hoped that everyone attending this event had a most enjoyable time.

Quite a few diamonds seem to be flashing around Chowan. Shirley Copeland, a sophomore; Erma Turner, a junior; Lynette Boyce, a senior; Brenda Hollowell, a senior, and Emily Bass, a senior, are the lucky girls. Congratulations to them!

The Bulldogettes played the Cape Hatteras Blue Devils in the Elizabeth City High School gymnasium Monday night at 6 o'clock. This was the first game of the tournament for the Bulldogettes. Scores were not available at press time.

Tuesday night at 9 o'clock the Chowan Bulldogs played the Manteo Redskins in the Elizabeth City High School gymnasium. Scores of this game were also unavailable at press time.
