

BROAD STREET BULLETIN

As we travel down life's highway
Filled with joy and bitter tears,
Let's remember all the good things
That God gave us through the years.

I don't know of any flour sifted with two teaspoons baking powder. More happy than to ride through the town and countryside and seeing the beautiful flowering shrubs and trees. Spring is such a glorious time of year. Right here in front of my window the camellias are blooming profusely and the weeping willow tree is so very green and it looks so graceful with its branches swaying in the breeze. How good it is to be alive!

They say that in days gone by, politics were discussed and debated by MEN ONLY. Not so any more. In fact, the big turn about this past weekend made everyone sit up and take notice. What the results will be is anyone's guess, but I'm wondering if it still doesn't amount to more political strategy.

After 46 what causes so many women to limp, waddle and sway? Is it excess weight, fallen arches, aching joints, tender toes, tight footwear or callous unconcern?

Opportunities to lose money pop up every day. Cabell Pruden came to see me last week and brought me several recipes which, she says, are delicious. It was so kind of her to take time out of her busy day for this and I do appreciate it. Here is one recipe for Hot Milk Cake:

Beat four eggs; add two cups sugar and two cups flour sifted with two teaspoons baking powder. Then beat well. Boil one cup milk and two sticks of oleo and add to above mixture. Add one teaspoon of vanilla. Bake 20 to 25 minutes at 325 degrees.

I had a nice letter this past week from Mrs. Earline Schmidt, who lives at Snug Harbor. Mrs. Schmidt gave us a most gracious invitation to visit Snug Harbor and, believe me, we shall try to take her up on that invitation. It's really very nice to get letters from my readers.

By the time you are reading this I'm scheduled again to be in Albemarle Hospital awaiting another operation Friday morning. I'll try to write some on this column next week, if I am able. If not—a happy Easter to each of you.

Here's a recipe for quick Chocolate Fudge:
1 lb. confectioners' sugar.
5 squares chocolate.
1 egg.
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla.
1/4 lb. butter.
Pinch of salt.
Melt butter and chocolate, add vanilla, sugar and salt. Add beaten egg and mix well. Spread on wax paper. Cool and cut.

Household Hints
Line shelves of medicine cabinet with blotting paper. It will absorb spills.
Varnish candles with clear shellac several days before using and they will not drip.
