

Chowan Pupils On Lists At ECU

GREENVILLE — Nearly one in six East Carolina University students last winter made high enough grades to earn places on the official honor lists of the university.

That 16 per cent of the students—a total of 1,461—got official commendation from the university as three honor lists were released recently.

Bobby S. Oer, Route 1, Edenton, and Vivian F. Whiteman, 801 East King Street, were among the most elite—those who made all A's. There were 140 students in this group.

Larry C. Parks, 817 Cabarrus Street, made the dean's list.

Honor Roll students included:

Brenda K. Bunch, Route 1, Edenton; John N. Bunch, Jr., Route 2, Edenton; Sandra E. Ervin, 210 South

Oakum Street; Dwight J. Flanagan, Country Club Drive; John W. Floors, 321 West Queen Street; Linda P. Forehand, Route 1, Edenton; Linda A. Hollowell, Route 2, Edenton; Sylvia L. Jordan, Route 2, Edenton, and Barbara A. Wallace, 308 West Queen Street.

Belinda C. Perry of Tyner also made the dean's list and Charles M. Asbell, Jr., Route 1, Tyner, was on the honor roll.

Marriage may not be the answer to all of life's problems, but it seems to be pretty popular as the beginning of them.

Only Way?

Another good way to attract a politician's attention is to make a noise like the voice of the people.

McGee Is Given New Position

Jerry McGee, former coach of the Edenton Aces, has been named defensive coordinator at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Ill.

In addition to heading up the defense, he will continue to coach the defensive secondary. McGee has been at SIU one year. He previously coached the Kansas State University's freshman team to their best record in history. At Edenton, he coached the high school team to two state championships and a 35-5-4 overall record.

McGee played fullback and linebacker for Duke University and Coach Bill Murray. His final game was the 7-6 victory over Arkansas in the 1961 Cotton Bowl. He played high school football in Elizabeth City.
